2023-03-01: Reports

3.1.1 Chair's Report – PF

- Chair reviewed items for upcoming Mar 23 TPB agenda.
- Chair reported that he attended the Heritage Day event at Queen's Park on Tuesday February 21st at which ACO lobbied in support of better practices re: construction materials and debris, and met with three MPPs.
- Chair also noted he met with Gary Miedema and Paul Maka, who expressed their appreciation for all of Adam Wynne's efforts to provide information on potential heritage properties, esp on LGBT-related properties in the Village.
- AW has been designated the TEYCPP "point person" for the work of evaluating the inventory listings; PB was "volunteered" as the person to assist with the East York listings
- Chair reports that Gary Miedema has been in touch with the appointments people at the city, and the applicants for TEYCPP will be contacted re: their current interest with the goal of restocking the Panel by May

2023-03-02: Section Reviews/Vice-Chair Reports

3.2.1 Midtown

- No report

3.2.2 Downtown – PF

- AW will add his latest properties to the April agenda
- JC asked if there was news of plans for Old City Hall, which ceases operations as a courthouse on May 29; PF reported it may be a temporary home for the prov. legislature while Queen's Park is renovated.

3.2.3 West – JC

- JC asked AW to provide an update on the Designer Fabric assembly appeal (no update) as well as the Parkdale HCD appeal case conference, which he attended; AW reports there are now five appellants (previously there were only two), but that four of the five are appealing on site-specific (not HCD) grounds, and that the next conference would be scheduled for September; AW and Ric Amis plan to meet with Councillor Perks to discuss the situation.

3.2.4 East – PB

- PB reported meeting with Stephanie Bowman, MPP Leaside re: tenants' issues
- PB attended the Mar. 19 Agnes Macphail Award ceremony as a EYHS representative and reports it was well attended.

2023-03-03: Other Business

- The ACO has established a T.O. Built Committee that will include AW.

Meeting adjourned 8:30 p.m.
