

Expression of Condolence for
Jerome “Jim” Nyman by Toronto City Council

Moved by: Councillor Paula Fletcher

Seconded by: Councillor Shelley Carroll

The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Jerome “Jim” Nyman on January 23, 2023, at the age of 74.

Jim was a gifted lawyer and helped many people during his 40-plus years of practice with CaleyWray Labour Lawyers. Highly esteemed by his colleagues, Jim had a strong sense of justice and cared deeply about his clients, working tirelessly on their behalf. The respect and joy that he brought to those in his life will be remembered by the thousands of people he helped over the course of his career, as well as his friends and family.

Jim also found pride and purpose in being a father and partner. His empathy, sense of humor, and storytelling abilities are greatly missed by his wife Jennifer, his sons Jesse, Daniel and Alexander, as well as by his many friends, clients, and associates.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincere sympathy to Jim Nyman's family, and his colleagues and friends at the CaleyWray Law Firm.

February 7, 2023