

Expression of Condolence for Douglas Campbell by Toronto City Council

Moved by: Councillor Michael Thompson

Seconded by: Deputy Mayor Jennifer McKelvie

The Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Douglas Campbell on February 20, 2023, at the age of 62.

Douglas was born on October 24, 1960, in St. John's, New Brunswick to parents Lloyd and Eula Campbell. The family moved to Scarborough when Douglas was two years old. He later attended David and Mary Thomson Collegiate, Churchill Collegiate, and Centennial College.

In 1986, Douglas got married to his loving wife, Jennifer Wilson-Campbell, and they later had a daughter, Meghan Campbell.

Douglas joined the Toronto Police Service in 1988 at 14 Division where he worked in the community foot patrol, the detective office, as well as regular patrol. Douglas was also assigned to the Canadian National Exhibition sub-station where he joined the bicycle patrol. Later, he was assigned to 41 Division as a Sergeant. He retired in 2019.

Douglas enjoyed watching the Toronto Maple Leafs, and was an avid reader and book collector. He always encouraged others to be the best version of themselves and his memory will forever live in our hearts.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincere sympathy to Douglas Campbell's family.

May 11, 2023