FURTHER INFORMATION

If you wish to be notified of the City of Toronto's refusal of a request to amend the by-law, you must make a written request to the City Clerk, to the attention of the appropriate Administrator, at the address or email noted above.

Notice to People Writing or Making Presentations to the Committee and City Council: The City of Toronto Act, 2006, the Planning Act, and the City of Toronto Municipal Code authorize the City of Toronto to collect any personal information in your communication or presentation to City Council or its committees.

The City collects this information to enable it to make informed decisions on the relevant issue(s). If you are submitting letters, e-mails, presentations or other communications to the City, you should be aware that your name and the fact that you communicated with the City will become part of the public record and will appear on the City's website. The City will also make your communication and any personal information in it - such as your postal address, telephone number or e-mail address - available to the public, unless you expressly request the City to remove it.

Many Committee, Board and Advisory Body meetings are broadcast live over the internet for the public to view. If you speak at the meeting you will appear in the video broadcast. Video broadcasts are archived and continue to be publicly available. Direct any questions about this collection to the appropriate Planner or Administrator noted above.

Dated at the City of Toronto on February 3, 2023.

John D. Elvidge
City Clerk
