

ATTACHMENT 1

Recommended Candidates and Biographies for the McCormick Playground Arena Board

Cory Cook

Cory is a committed community advocate and lifelong learner, with considerable professional expertise in complex issues management and sustainable growth. He is passionate about sports and community service, and brings extensive volunteer experience coaching children's teams, serving on volunteer committees, and contributing to numerous non-profit organizations, each of which demonstrate a strong dedication to fostering learning and growth, and ensuring positive community outcomes.

Heather Cunningham

As a lifelong resident of Toronto, I am very proud of our city and would like to help to keep it inclusive and to make it an even greater place to live, work and play. I am the proud mother of two adult boys and the loving grandmother of 7. Although I attended Toronto Teachers' College my entire career was spent in the Administrative field in various organizations. I recently retired, and look forward to travelling and to serving my community.

Violeta Dunning

Violeta is an immigrant who has resided in Toronto for 20 years. She loves living in the Brockton neighborhood! The most important thing to her is her family, including her dear husband, two amazing little girls, and two cats. Professionally, she is a social worker and a researcher, currently completing a PhD at the University of Toronto.

Moussa Ferzoli

Moussa is a business leader driven to make improvements through human change management digital transformation. In his day job, he works at the intersection of business strategy, technology-driven innovation, and project management to deliver on high impacts outcomes. He is dedicated to the highest level of authenticity, ethics, and humility. Moussa firmly believes good business and doing good are very much mutually inclusive. In his spare time, he enjoys reading non-fiction and enjoying the great neighborhoods of Toronto.

Hudson Manning

Hudson is a life-long member of the local community in Davenport who has had the privilege of benefiting from the role that the McCormick Arena plays in the community, having grown up playing Parkdale Flames Association hockey. He recently completed the combined JD/MBA program at the University of Toronto. He is an articling student at Torys LLP and been privileged to have previously held a number of roles spanning law, finance and public policy.

Paul Romain

Paul works as an executive in the financial services industry, is a life-long hockey fan, and has played hockey at McCormick arena for almost thirty years.