Presentation Overview

- Why this audit matters
- Audit objectives
- Key audit findings and recommendations
- Closing remarks

Why This Audit Matters

- The Ontario Building Code sets the minimum standards for the design and construction of buildings to minimize risk to the health and safety of occupants

- Reviewing and approving building permit applications can help ensure that proposed construction complies with the Building Code, Zoning by-laws, and other Applicable Law

Background – Intake and Plan Review of Building Permit Applications

Applicant submits application by email

Intake review and Submission Status Letter

Applicant pays initial fees

Review for compliance with Building Code, Zoning by-laws and Applicable Law

Issue or refuse permit

Provide reasons for denial within the required time frames

Review resubmissions until all compliance requirements are met

Applicant pays outstanding fees (if any)

Building permit issued

Audit Objectives

- Are applications for building permits reviewed, and approved or refused, within the legislated or internal service level time frames?
- Are Toronto Building's plan review processes adequately designed to determine whether proposed construction is in compliance with the Building Code, Zoning by-laws, and other Applicable Law?
- Are there ways to leverage data and technology to improve the efficiency of the plan review processes?

An architectural floor plan of a building, showing various rooms, corridors, and structural elements. The plan is overlaid on a white notebook with a black pen resting on it. The floor plan includes labels such as '308', '309', '310', '311', '312', '313', '314', '315', '316', '317', '318', '319', '320', '321', '322', '323', '324', '325', '326', '327', '328', '329', '330', '331', '332', '333', '334', '335', '336', '337', '338', '339', '340', '341', '342', '343', '344', '345', '346', '347', '348', '349', '350', '351', '352', '353', '354', '355', '356', '357', '358', '359', '360', '361', '362', '363', '364', '365', '366', '367', '368', '369', '370', '371', '372', '373', '374', '375', '376', '377', '378', '379', '380', '381', '382', '383', '384', '385', '386', '387', '388', '389', '390', '391', '392', '393', '394', '395', '396', '397', '398', '399', '400'.

Opportunities for Improvement

- A. Reinforcing quality and consistency in reviewing building permit applications and compliance with legislated time frames
- B. Enhancing operational policies and strengthening management oversight
- C. Modernizing technology and data needed to better support building permit application intake and plan review processes

A. Reinforcing Quality and Consistency in Reviewing Building Permit Applications and Compliance with Legislated Time Frames

Improving service levels for the overall processing of building permit applications

Of the 58 files we reviewed:

- 55% were not processed within legislated or internal service level time frames
- On average it took about 17 business days over and above the legislated or internal service level time frames to complete plan reviews

Review Time for Sampled Building Permit Applications Compared Against Required Time Frames

A. Reinforcing Quality and Consistency in Reviewing Building Permit Applications and Compliance with Legislated Time Frames

Improving the timeliness and quality of the review of application submissions at intake

Strengthening the documentation and retention of centralized records of plan review activities

Ensuring timely review of resubmissions of additional information and inactive permit applications

B. Enhancing Operational Policies and Strengthening Management Oversight

Strengthen operational policies and procedures

Enhance quality assurance through increased supervisory oversight and ongoing monitoring of compliance

Improve onboarding, professional development, and training

C. Modernizing Technology and Data Needed to Better Support Building Permit Application Intake and Plan Review Processes

Enhance system functionality

Improve quality and reliability of data

Closing Remarks

- 11 recommendations to improve Toronto Building's policies and processes for building permit application intake and plan reviews
- Management agrees with all recommendations
