Term of office

Public members of Council Advisory Bodies are appointed for a term coincident with the term of City Council. The advisory committee will meet until the completion of its mandate or the end of the current City Council term, ending on November 14, 2026, whichever comes first.

Public members should meet certain qualifications

In addition to the general eligibility requirements set out in the Public Appointments Policy, members should collectively bring the following skills and expertise to the committee:

- A strong interest in progressive advancement of the right to adequate housing and the rights of people experiencing housing precarity, discrimination and/or homelessness;
- Expertise in a human rights-based approach to housing and understanding of international laws and frameworks establishing the right to adequate housing;
- Knowledge and awareness of the function of different levels of government and intergovernmental roles and responsibilities related to housing;
- Knowledge of the academic research related to a human rights based approach to housing and housing policy and/or learnings from other jurisdictions;
- Experience in communication, decision-making, community advocacy;
- Experience or skills in navigating sensitive discussions in a public environment, facilitating respectful dialogue, and fostering a welcoming and safe space for diverse experiences to be shared;
- Availability to attend meetings during business hours.

Consultation with Housing Secretariat Staff and the Committee Chair

In preparation for the recruitment process, Public Appointments consulted with the Committee Chair and staff from the Housing Secretariat. It was suggested that a candidate with a background in health and understanding of the housing rights framework would be an asset to the committee.

Outreach was conducted for this vacancy

The opportunity to join the Housing Rights Advisory Committee was shared through LinkedIn, the Public Appointments e-update list, internal City partners, and various professional and community organizations.

Next Steps - Interviews

Once the Civic Appointments Committee has selected candidates for interviews, the City Clerk's Office will contact the candidates to schedule them for 15 minute interviews. Five interviews plus deliberations will take approximately two hours to complete.
