RECOMMENDATIONS

The Mayor recommends that:

1. City Council recommend Councillor Gord Perks and former City Manager Chris Murray as nominees for consideration by the Province to sit on the Municipal Property Assessment Corporation Board of Directors

SUMMARY AND COMMENTS

---

The Minister of Finance has asked the City of Toronto to provide two nominees for consideration to sit on the Municipal Property Assessment Corporation (MPAC) Board of Directors. The Minister will select one of the nominees to fill a vacancy on the MPAC Board of Directors.

The term of office of the City of Toronto's current representative on the MPAC Board of Directors, Roberto Rossini, expired on July 12, 2024.

The Municipal Property Assessment Corporation is a provincial board that provides assessment services on behalf of Ontario Municipalities. The MPAC Board of Directors is composed of 13 members:

- 7 municipal representatives (either current or former elected officials or current or former officers/employees of the municipality)
- 4 taxpayer representatives
- 2 provincial representatives.

Directors serve for a three-year term of office for a maximum of three terms.

This report recommends an elected official, Councillor Gord Perks, a former City Manager, Chris Murray as the City's nominees for the MPAC Board of Directors.
