COMMENTS

Since 2004, Court Services has entered into contracts with third-party collection agencies to support the collection of defaulted fines under the Provincial Offences Act. The ability to use collection agencies to enforce defaulted Provincial Offences Act fines is provided under Section 165(9) of the Provincial Offences Act and Section 240 of the City of Toronto Act, 2006. Section 70.1(1) of the Provincial Offences Act allows the City to charge back collection agency costs to the debtor as part of the outstanding debt.

Ariba Document Number 3389680974 was issued on October 12, 2022, for the provision of collection agency services to support the collection of defaulted fines under the Provincial Offences Act, which resulted in an award to collection agencies and the issuance of blanket contracts for two-year fixed-term contract and potential three (3) one-year optional periods.
