New Road Disruption Activity Reporting System (RoDARS) Fee

Addition to City of Toronto Municipal Code Chapter 441, Fees and Charges

Toronto City Council will be considering recommendations to pass a by-law to amend City of Toronto Municipal Code Chapter 441, Fees and Charges, to recover administrative costs associated with congestion management incurred to review temporary right-of-way street occupation applications.

It is proposed that the by-law be adopted at a Council meeting as soon as possible after notification from the General Manager, Transportation Services that implementation of the new RoDARS system has been completed and that all other necessary steps associated with creating and adding a new RoDARS fee have been completed.

The report from the General Manager, Transportation Services, titled “Congestion Management Plan 2023-2026 – Fall Update” has the following recommendations:

3. City Council amend City of Toronto Municipal Code Chapter 441, Fees and Charges , Appendix C - Schedule 2 (Transportation Services) to establish a new Road Disruption Activity Reporting System (RoDARS) fee for temporary street occupation permit applicants as set out in Attachment 1, and request the City Solicitor to submit the bill to amend Chapter 441 as soon as possible after the General Manager, Transportation Services has confirmed that implementation of the new RoDARS system has been completed and that all other necessary steps associated with creating and adding a new RoDARS fee have been completed.

13. Infrastructure and Environment Committee direct the General Manager, Transportation Services, to report directly to the October 9 and 10 Council meeting with a report confirming that if the requisite community consultation on the RoDARS fee, as noted in recommendation 3, has been completed.

At its meeting to be held virtually and in-person on September 27, 2024, at 9:30 a.m. or as soon as possible thereafter, the Infrastructure and Environment Committee of Toronto City Council will hear in person, or by his or her counsel, agent or solicitor, any person who wishes to speak to the matter.
