Comments:

Dear Chair McKelvie and Members of IEC,

Last month, I was extremely concerned to learn that Toronto is not on track to meet its climate action targets and achieve net zero by 2040. The rollout of our cycling network plan must be expedited. The “Business as Planned” pace, not the ambitious build-out that we need to make riding a bike a better option for more people city-wide.

I urge you to vote unanimously to implement the eglintonTOday Complete Street project, approved by Council almost a decade ago! With 37.4 km already installed and 7.8 km approved this year, his 8 km project is integral to completing the Council-approved 100 km 2022-2024 Cycling Network Plan this year and getting Toronto back on track.

As an elected leader, you want a safer, more economically vibrant public realm. In order to accomplish this we must ease traffic congestion and give people access to efficient and sustainable transportation options. Your vote for the eglintonTOday Complete Street is an important step in making this a reality.

Thank you for your work and support in making Toronto a better place for everyone.

Thank you for your consideration,
