COMMENTS

The Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, and Access (IDEA) team has hosted a few activities to support cultural awareness and education over the past couple of months.

During the month of April, World Autism was acknowledged and supported via an educational communication to all staff. We also learned about Eid al Fitr and why it is important within the Muslim faith.

During the month of May, TO Live celebrated the Asian and Jewish communities through education of the contributions both communities have made to Canada. Asian and Jewish film directors were featured during our employee movie nights to support both heritages. Lastly, we remembered those who were lost during Yom HaShoah.
