

Expression of Condolence for Derek Brown by Toronto City Council

Moved by: Mayor Olivia Chow

Seconded by: Deputy Mayor Ausma Malik

The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Derek Brown on August 7, 2024, at the age of 80.

Derek Brown practiced law for over 50 years and worked for the City of Toronto as a specialist in pension law for most of those years.

Derek was known for his intellect as well as his many interests which included his love of music and dance, which he passed on to his family. He enjoyed performing in concert bands and orchestras as well as ballroom dancing.

Derek was also an avid reader who loved learning. He also had a passion for gardening, riding his bicycle, and for the environment.

Derek was a caring and devoted husband and father who enjoyed spending time with his family. He will be remembered as a kind, intelligent, and thoughtful person.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincere sympathy, and deepest condolences to Derek Brown's wife of 44 years, Muriel; his daughters, Amanda and Juliana; their families; and the many people he touched throughout his life.
