Antonio Gagliano by Toronto City Council

Moved by: Councillor Frances Nunziata

Seconded by: Councillor Paula Fletcher

The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Antonio Gagliano, a man of love, faith, and wisdom, who passed away peacefully on December 12, 2024, at the age of 89.

Antonio was the devoted husband of Jesua, with whom he shared a lifelong bond of love and commitment. Together, they built a home filled with faith, family, and warmth.

He was a proud and loving father to Meme, Joe (Edie), John (Michelle), and Janey (Sal), and a cherished Nonno to Dimitri, Jesoua, Vanessa, Anthony, Aliya, Christian, and Gianluca. Antonio's guidance, rooted in integrity and compassion, shaped the lives of his family and left a lasting legacy.

Antonio's influence extended far beyond his immediate family. He was a beloved brother to Mema and is now reunited in Heaven with his brother Gaetano. His generosity, kindness, and unwavering faith touched all who knew him, leaving a profound impact on friends, neighbors, and his community.

His life was a testament to the power of love and the strength of family. Though his passing leaves a deep void, his memory will remain a guiding light for all who loved him. Antonio's gentle smile and boundless love will be deeply missed.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincere sympathy to Antonio Gagliano's family.
