ATTENTION: BRAD BARTLETT, COMMITTEE SECRETARY
RE: SIGN VARIANCE COMMITTEE MEETING (MAY 10, 2024)
ITEM #'s: SB9.2; SB9.3; & SB9.4

Dear Chair and Committee Members,

I wish to offer my sincere and deepest apologies in respect of the events that transpired on the morning of May 10, 2024, Meeting #9 of the Sign Variance Committee. This letter serves to share with you that these events, in no way, reflect on the professional behaviour and conduct of Bader Group Inc., including its' Principal, Robert Bader. The irregularities respecting the legal standing of the applications before the Committee, as presented by Mr. Brown, was completely unknown to Bader Group Inc. and D'Onofrio Holdings Inc. and we desire that the professional integrity and credibility of Mr. Bader and his firm remains unharmed. To be sure, we direct full responsibility to JOLT Canada Inc. and its representative, Ryan McKeown, for the misinformation and miscommunication that was presented and on display at the Sign Variance Committee meeting on the morning of May 10, 2024.

Where we are able, we also wish to apologize for the unbecoming conduct of Mr. Brown. Meetings of the Sign Variance Committee are administered by a procedural By-law and it was abundantly clear that the form and manner of the meeting, as regulated by said By-law, was not followed.

Again, we provide our deepest and most earnest regrets. Our genuine hope is that such an experience is not re-lived and that we have learned from these flawed acts.

Regards,

Guy D'Onofrio
