NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETING

To be held by the Toronto and East York Community Council
(Under the Planning Act)

Request to Amend the Zoning By-law Application Number 23 167778 STE 10 OZ

Location of Application: 257-259 and 291 Lakeshore Boulevard East, 2 Small Street, 200 Queens Quay East
Applicant: Urban Strategies
Date: July 10, 2024
Time: 9:30 a.m. or as soon as possible thereafter
Place: Committee Room 1, Toronto City Hall and by Video Conference

PROPOSAL

The application to amend the Zoning By-law proposes to permit three mixed use towers (70, 64 and 55 storeys) and a 12-storey mid-rise building for the property at 257-259 and 291 Lake Shore Boulevard East, 2 Small Street, and 200 Queens Quay East. The proposed Zoning By-law would permit 193,650 square metres of mixed-use development with up to 180,000 square metres of residential floor area, of which 36,996 square metres would be required for affordable rental housing (approximately 2,811 total residential units, including 458 affordable rental units). The proposal includes institutional, retail and community uses including a child care facility and a privately-owned publicly accessible space (POPS).

Detailed information regarding the proposal, including background information and material may be obtained by contacting Chris Hilbrecht, Senior Planner, Community Planning at 416-392-0172, or by e-mail at Chris.Hilbrecht@toronto.ca.

Further information can be found at www.Toronto.ca/259LakeShoreBlvdE.

PURPOSE OF PUBLIC MEETING

Toronto and East York Community Council will receive input and review the proposal and any other material placed before it, in order to make recommendations on the application. These recommendations will then be forwarded to Toronto City Council for its consideration.

FURTHER INFORMATION

If you wish to be notified of the decision of the City of Toronto on the proposed Official Plan Amendment and the passing or refusal of the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment, you must make a written request to the City Clerk Attention: Cathrine Regan, Administrator, at the address, fax number or e-mail set out above.

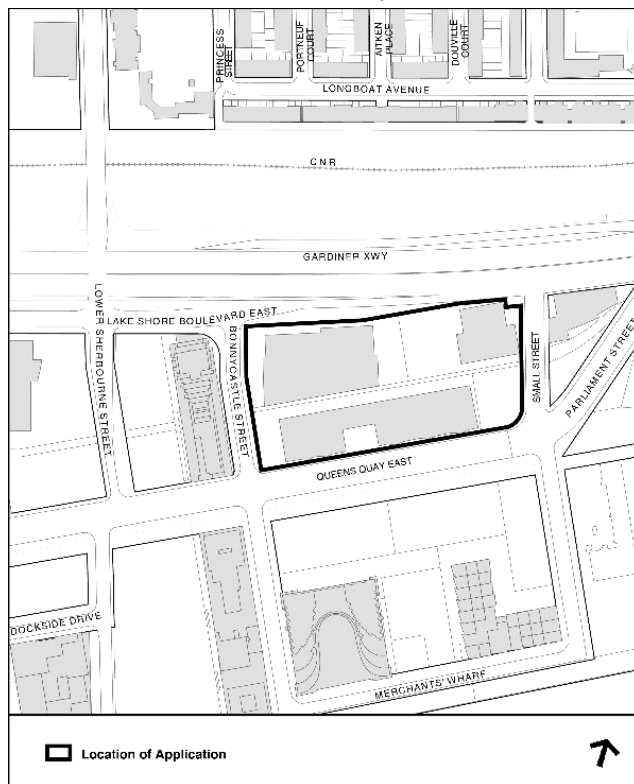

Zoning By-law Amendment Appeal: If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the City of Toronto to the Ontario Land Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of Toronto before the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment is passed or refused, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submission at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of Toronto before the proposed Zoning By-Law Amendment is passed or refused the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Land Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to add the person or public body as a party.

People writing or making presentations at the public meeting: The City of Toronto Act, 2006, the Planning Act, and the City of Toronto Municipal Code authorize the City of Toronto to collect any personal information in your communication or presentation to City Council or its committees.

The City collects this information to enable it to make informed decisions on the relevant issue(s). If you are submitting letters, faxes, e-mails, presentations or other communications to the City, you should be aware that your name and the fact that you communicated with the City will become part of the public record and will appear on the City's website. The City will also make your communication and any personal information in it - such as your postal address, telephone number or e-mail address - available to the public, unless you expressly request the City to remove it.

Many Committee, Board and Advisory Body meetings are broadcast live over the internet for the public to view. If you speak at the meeting you will appear in the video broadcast. Video broadcasts are archived and continue to be publicly available. Direct any questions about this collection to City Clerk's Office at the telephone number or email address set out above.

An online version of this Notice is available at: <https://www.toronto.ca/city-government/public-notices-bylaws>.

Compliance with Provincial laws respecting Notice may result in you receiving duplicate notices.

Dated at the City of Toronto on June 19, 2024.
