

Welcome, Introductions, and Land Acknowledgement

Kelvin Seow, Chief People and Strategy Officer, Exhibition Place, welcomed the participants to the Tenant Liaison Meeting, introduced Co-Host Mr. Howard Lichtman member of the Board of Governors, and Introduced Exhibition Place Staff; Mr. Lichtman then greeted and addressed the Tenants. The Land Acknowledgement followed.

Speakers and Presenters

---

Transportation and Security Update - Tony Porter - Director of Security & Transportation, Exhibition Place

- Changes to parking passes: physical parking passes (hanging tags, bar codes, etc.) will be eliminated in early 2025, and all parking rights will be validated through the vehicle license plate
  - Review of the event management zone and traffic management plan
  - Ontario Line update
  - Gardiner Rehabilitation project update
  - Dufferin Bridge replacement project update
  - FIFA 2026 and future capital works projects discussed
-

Current and future Capital Works Update - Prashant Bhalja - Director, Capital Works, Exhibition Place

- Centennial Square and Indigenous feature wall overview
- Lighting upgrades to Exhibition Place
- Perimeter fence replacement project
- Enercare roof project
- Food Building project and high voltage project
- Discussion of future capital works projects for 2025

Marketing Initiatives - Brandon Pickard – Marketing and Communications Manager, Exhibition Place

- Introduction of new Marketing Manager - Brandon Pickard
  - Integrated Events Calendar exploration for 2025
  - 2025 marketing projects
  - Judy Mahoney, Director of Sales and Marketing, Exhibition Place, notified Tenants that Beanfield will no longer be a naming sponsor
-

FIFA 2026 Update - Michael Brewer, FIFA Secretariat

- Transportation roadmap – FIFA
  - Traffic management plan review – FIFA
  - Traffic management strategies – FIFA
  - Road closure map shared – FIFA
-

The meeting was opened for Q and As.

At the conclusion, Kelvin and Howard thanked all tenants for participating in the meeting and reminded the attendees that we would keep them apprised of future decisions.