Introduction

Welcome to Metropolis 40th Anniversary Seoul Congress 2025!

The Metropolis 40th Anniversary Seoul Congress 2025 invites you to reimagine the future of metropolises. In an increasingly complex global scenario, cities and metropolitan spaces are vital to address the shared challenges of present and future generations.

Seoul, a city known for its innovative and forward-thinking character, will be the scenario of a commemoration of four decades of collaboration.

Theme

Metropolitan Futures

We will be looking not at the past but at the future of cities, envisioning the possibilities of metropolitan action.

This extraordinary congress will offer high-level discussions, technical visits, and cultural presentations: an exceptional opportunity for exchange, networking and visibility.

Congress Venue

Dongdaemun Design Plaza (DDP)

281 Eulji-ro, Jung-gu, Seoul

Designed by Zaha Hadid, DDP is a multi-cultural complex located at Dongdaemun History & Culture Park Station in Seoul, Korea.

Since its foundation on March 21, 2014, DDP has staged diverse cultural events including exhibitions, fashion shows, product launch shows, forums, conferences and various cultural events.

09:00

Metropolis Board of Directors Meeting

Conference Hall, DDP

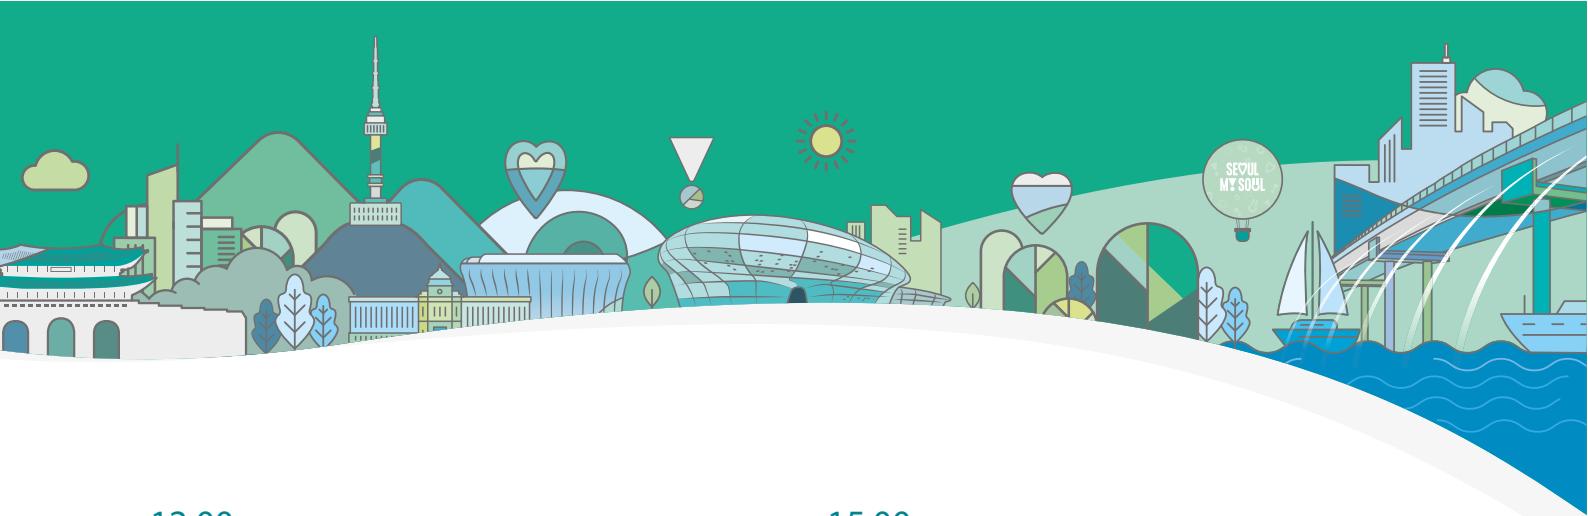

The annual in-person meeting of Metropolis' highest governing body, open to Board members, invited guests, and observers.

10:00

MeTTA Congress

Seoul On Studio, DDP
Organized by Seoul Institute

The high-level meeting of MeTTA (Megacity Think Tank Alliance) among member institutions, attended by representatives.

12:00

Networking Lunch

Art Hall 2, DDP

A buffet-style lunch will be provided for participants to dine freely and engage in informal networking in a relaxed setting.

13:30

Official Congress Opening

Art Hall 1, DDP

This opening address by global urban leaders will highlight the critical importance of metropolitan collaboration in addressing global challenges and ensuring the resilience of urban systems. The session will also serve as a call to action, inviting city leaders to share their visions, renew their commitments, and build collective momentum toward a more inclusive, sustainable, and future-ready urban agenda.

15:00

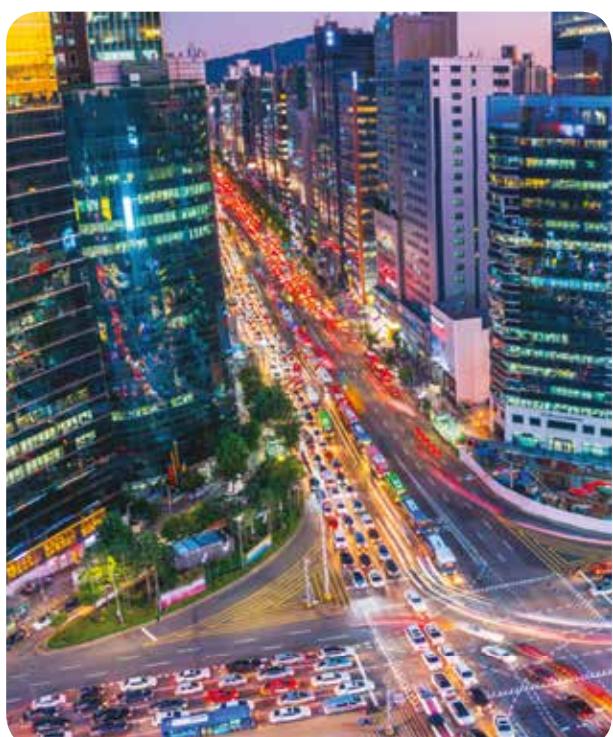

Megacities Dialogue: Leaving no one behind

Art Hall 1, DDP

Building on the success of the first Megacities Summit, hosted by the Metropolitan City of Istanbul on 8 October 2023, this year's edition in Seoul will take place alongside the Metropolis 40th Anniversary Congress.

Leaders will explore how megacities can move from being sites of inequality to champions of shared prosperity.

This dialogue offers a unique opportunity to reimagine the future of megacities, addressing the core question: How can megacities ensure quality of life and opportunity for all?

Day 1 | Program

Monday, 29 September 2025

09:00

Global Cities Foresight Workshop (two-day workshop) *Invite Only

Design Lab, DDP

This exclusive two-day workshop will serve as a pivotal gathering for senior city leaders and decision-makers, specifically those holding high-level positions in foresight and strategic planning areas.

The workshop will offer a platform to co-create future urban scenarios through dynamic, scenario-based exercises, allowing participants to identify collaborative pathways and actionable solutions tailored to local contexts, while promoting global cooperation. This will provide an invaluable opportunity to exchange best practices, share experiences, and explore methodologies to help cities integrate foresight into their strategic planning processes.

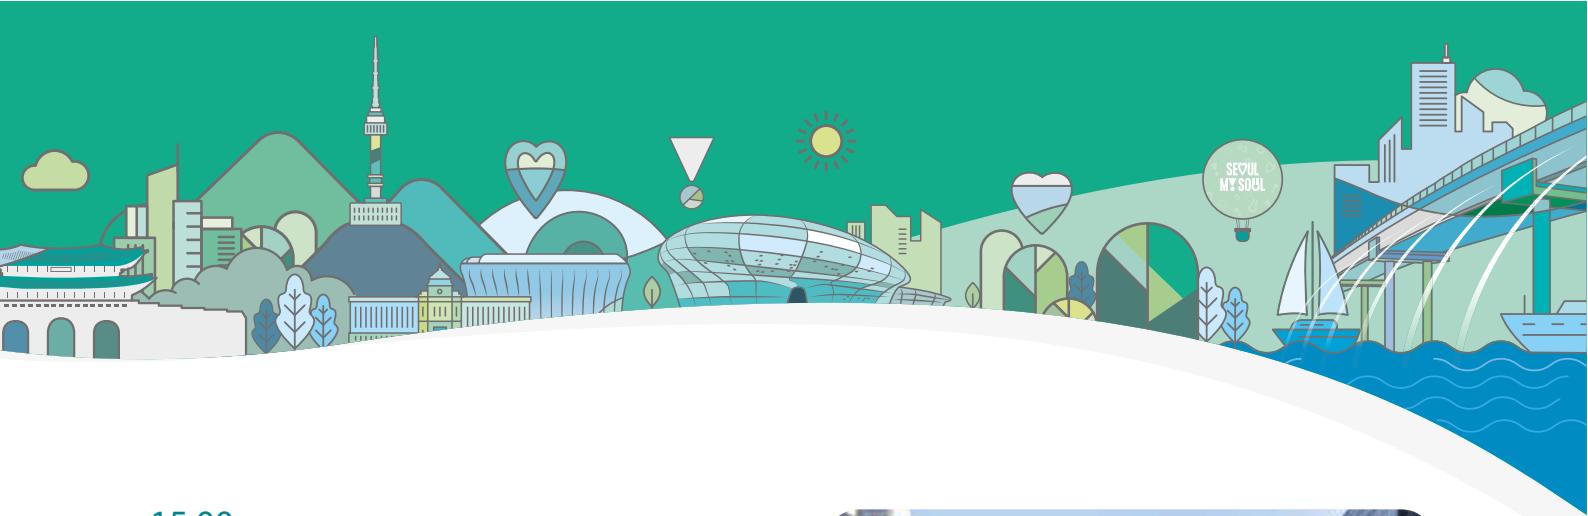

15:00

Urban Solutions Spotlight

Conference Hall, DDP

Session 1: The Role of Cities and Governance Models to Promote Transparency, Accountability, Inclusion, and Gender Equality.

As global challenges demand more open and responsive institutions, cities play a pivotal role in shaping governance models that uphold transparency, accountability, inclusion, and gender equality. This session will highlight innovative city-led approaches and policies that strengthen democratic values and social equity. Through knowledge exchange and case sharing, participants will explore how urban governance can be a powerful tool for building more just and inclusive societies.

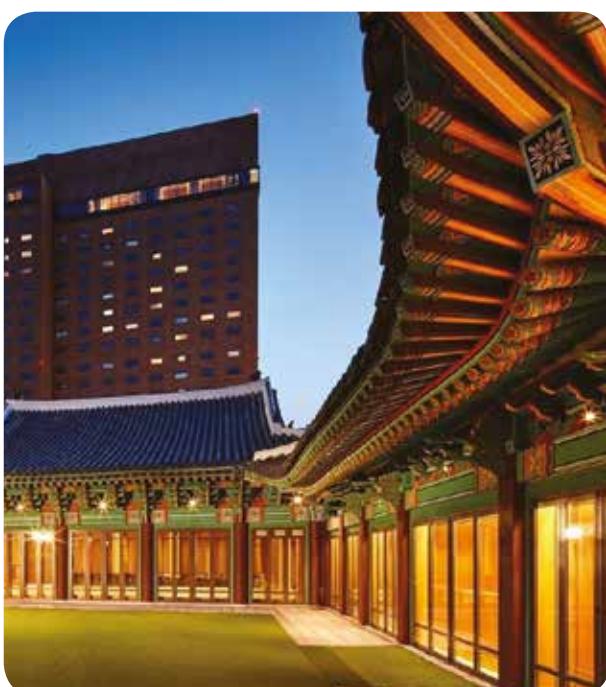

15:00

Digital Safety Forum: Preventing and Responding to Digital Sexual Violence

Seoul On Studio, DDP

Organized by Seoul Foundation of Women & Family

As technology rapidly evolves, so do the risks of abuse within digital spaces. This session brings together global experts, policymakers, and civil society to explore effective strategies to prevent and respond to digital sexual crimes, including online harassment, image-based abuse, and non-consensual distribution of sexual content. The forum aims to foster international cooperation, share best practices, and strengthen the legal and institutional frameworks needed to protect victims and uphold digital rights.

18:00

Metropolis 40th Anniversary Gala Dinner

Shilla Hotel

As Metropolis reaches its 40th anniversary, we invite distinguished guests, global city leaders, and strategic partners to an extraordinary Gala Dinner in Seoul, the host of our Anniversary and World Congress.

This milestone event will be an elegant and immersive experience, celebrating four decades of urban collaboration, leadership, and innovation. The Dinner will be the scenario for The Pattis Family Foundation Global Cities Book Award ceremony, a moment to celebrate excellence in global urban writing.

Urban Solutions Spotlight

Conference Hall, DDP

Session 2: Ensuring Balanced Urban Ecosystems and Improving Social Cohesion

This session will bring together cities showcasing practical solutions that foster a harmonious relationship between metropolises and their natural environment, while reducing ecological footprints and adapting to environmental change. It will highlight approaches such as nature-based solutions, sustainable mobility, and circular urban systems that promote efficient cycles of water, energy, food, and waste. Additionally, the session will explore solutions for inclusive and effective governance, ensuring urban planning and policies are responsive to the needs of all inhabitants. By focusing on legal and institutional frameworks, citizen engagement, and bridging the rural-urban divide, these solutions aim to create more cohesive, sustainable, and inclusive urban futures.

09:00

Global Cities Foresight Workshop (two-day workshop) *Invite Only

Design Lab, DDP

On the second day of the workshop, participants will build on the foundations laid during Day 1, continuing discussions and refining collaborative strategies to design future-ready cities.

For a comprehensive overview of the workshop's objectives, methodology, and participant profiles, please refer to the Day 1 description.

Day 2 | Program

Tuesday, 30 September 2025

09:30

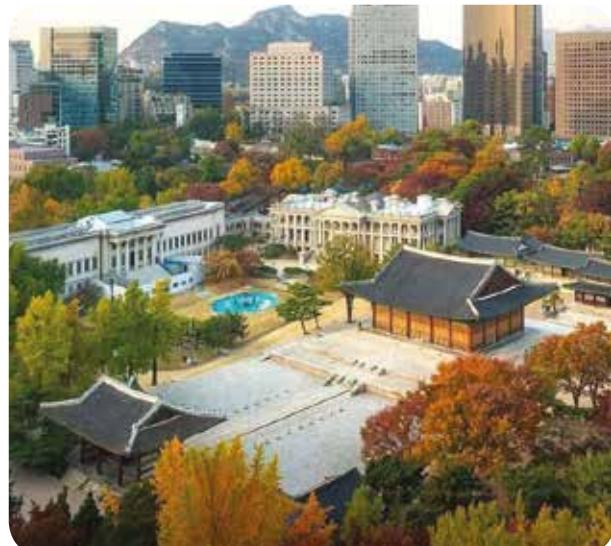

Metropolis International Training Institute (MITI) Sharing Forum

Art Hall 1, DDP

Seoul Metropolitan Government Human Resources Development Center (SHRDC) is the headquarters of the Metropolis International Training Institute (MITI).

As Metropolis celebrates its 40 years anniversary, MITI aims to increase its scope of local training institutes and expand opportunities for its members.

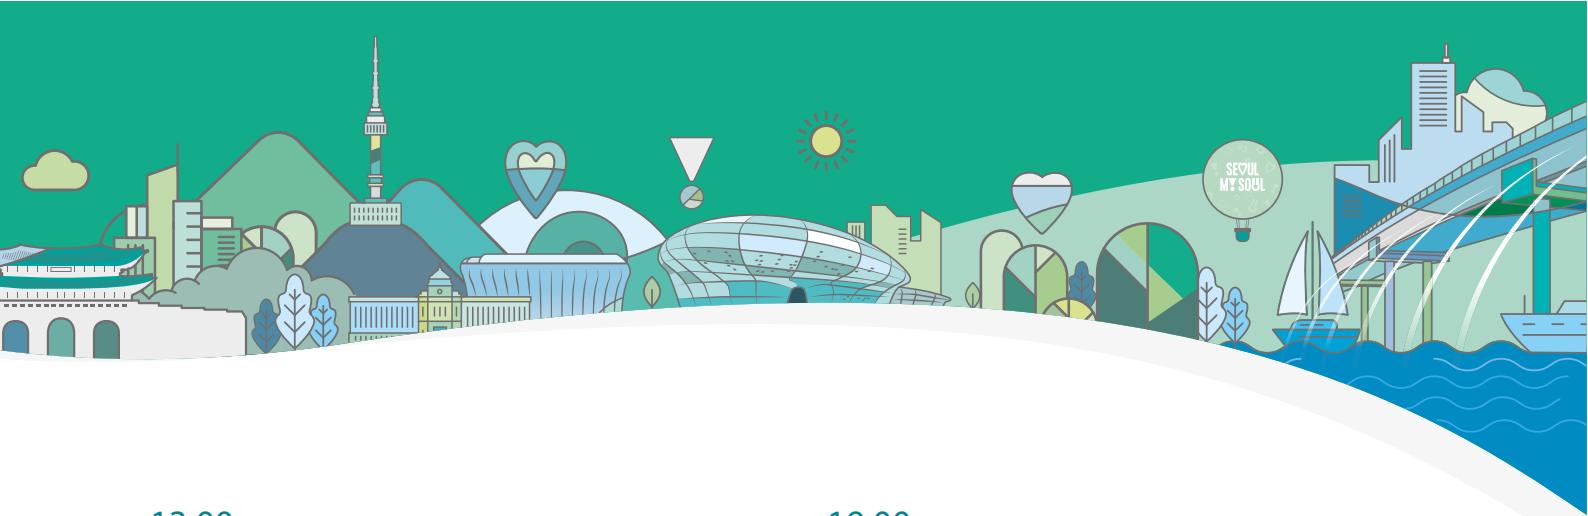

The MITI Sharing Forum marks the culmination of a decade-long journey of collaborative learning and capacity building among Metropolis members through the MITI centers and will be presenting the way forward for MITI's development.

11:30 Networking Lunch

COEX 317+318

A buffet-style lunch will be provided for participants to dine freely and engage in informal networking in a relaxed setting.

09:00	Site Visits: Biennale of Architecture and Urbanism or International Garden Show	Songhyeon Green Plaza or Boramae Park
12:00	Closing Plenary & Lunch	Novotel Ambassador

*Times subject to change

09:00 Site Visits: Seoul's Leading Urban Innovations

Participants choose from guided visits showcasing Seoul's latest urban projects, along with the opportunity to attend:

The 5th Seoul Biennale of Architecture and Urbanism (SBAU): "Radically More Human"

The 5th Seoul Biennale goes beyond viewing architecture purely from an aesthetic perspective. Instead, it focuses on the facades of buildings we encounter in our everyday lives and explores how architecture and urban environments can be made more enjoyable and engaging.

The Biennale will be held from September 26 to November 18.

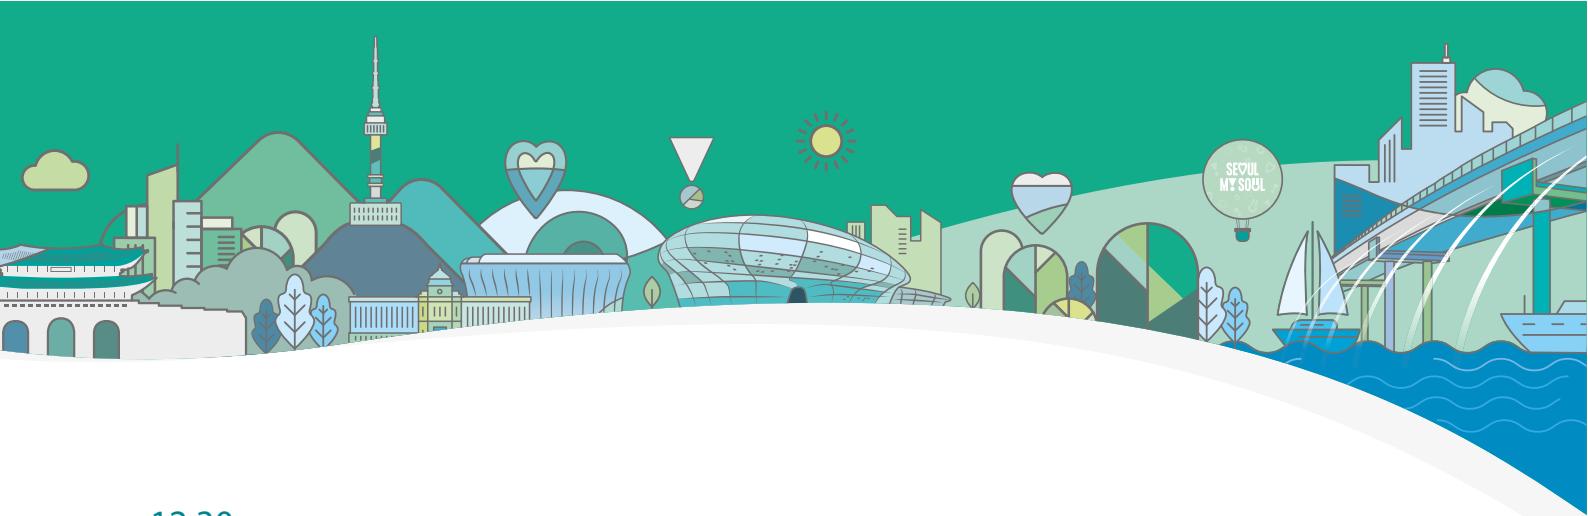

2025 Seoul International Garden Show (SIGS): "Seoul, Green Soul"

This year marks the 10th anniversary of SIGS since its launch in 2015. SIGS 2025 will feature the largest area and longest duration to date, with expanded content to match, aiming to grow the show into a festival that attracts over 10 million visitors this year.

SIGS will be held from May 22 to October 20.

12:30

Closing Plenary: A Vision for the Future & Lunch

Novotel Ambassador Dongdaemun

As we bid farewell to the Metropolis 40th Anniversary Congress, we invite all delegates to leave with the spirit and energy of Seoul My Soul—a lasting memory of our time together, marked by a special giveaway for each participant.

Buffet Lunch with a moment to unwind, reflect, and share final conversations with peers in a relaxed and inspiring setting with some closing speeches from the organizers.
