

PB30.2

78 and 80 Nassau Street– Inclusion on the Heritage Register

PB30.2

78 and 80 Nassau Street

This location map is for information purposes only; the exact boundaries of the properties are not shown. The red outlines indicate the location of the properties.

80 Nassau Street (L) and 78 Nassau Street (R).

Constructed c.1885, the properties at 78 and 80 Nassau Street have physical value as a pair of house-form buildings that reflect vernacular interpretations of Victorian architectural styles. The two properties are associated with the early residential development of Kensington Market. 78 Nassau Street is also associated with the area's patterns of commercial adaptation that began in the early 20th century.

Contextually, the properties support and maintain the historic, mixed-use character of Kensington Market and are physically, functionally, visually, and historically linked to the surrounding market area.