

Expression of Condolence for David Harricharran
by Toronto City Council

Moved by: Councillor Michael Thompson

Seconded by: Mayor Olivia Chow

The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of David Harricharran on March 5, 2025, at the age of 62.

Born on September 12 in Bush Lot, Berbice, Guyana, David later moved to Scarborough, Ontario, where he became a beloved and respected member of the community. A man of great integrity and warmth, David touched the lives of many through his generosity, dedication, and unwavering commitment to family and community.

David was the devoted husband of Carol, and together they built a life filled with love, laughter, and cherished memories. As a father, he was a nurturing and guiding presence to his children, Aleya and Adam, always placing their happiness and well-being above all else.

Known for his tireless work ethic and professionalism, David earned the respect and admiration of colleagues and friends alike. Beyond his career, he was deeply involved in his community, dedicating his time and talents to several charitable causes. His passion for The Caribbean Children Foundation (TCCF) was particularly notable, and his leadership in the annual boat cruise fundraiser has left a lasting legacy that continues to inspire.

David will be remembered for his gentle spirit, his deep empathy, and his unwavering love for his family, friends, and community. His absence is deeply felt, but his memory and impact will live on in the many lives he touched.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our deepest sympathy to David Harricharran's family.
