

Expression of Condolence for Olga Crombie
by Toronto City Council

Moved by: Councillor Brad Bradford

Seconded by: Councillor Parthi Kandavel

The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Olga Crombie (née Tsolakis) on November 4, 2025, at the age of 61. A beloved wife, mother, sister, and friend whose love and strength touched everyone who knew her.

Born and raised in Toronto, Olga was fierce in her convictions, selfless in her actions, and endlessly loving in her heart. She dedicated her life to her family and to those she cherished, embodying a spirit of kindness, compassion, and resilience that left a lasting impression on everyone she met.

Olga is survived by her loving husband Glenn Crombie, her sons Steven and Luke Crombie, and her brother Phillip Tsolakis. Her memory will forever live on in the hearts of her family and friends.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincere sympathy to Olga Crombie's husband Glenn, her sons Steven and Luke, her brother Phillip, and her extended family and friends.

November 12, 2025