PROPOSAL

The city-initiated Zoning By-law Amendment proposes to revise four Site specific Zoning By-laws in order to allow for the reallocation of unspent Section 37 monies previously secured. The locations of the Site Specific Zoning By-laws proposed to be amended are:

- Southeast and Southwest corner of McCowan Road and Finch Avenue;
- Southeast corner of McNicoll Avenue and Midland Avenue;
- 5789 to 5951 Steeles Avenue; and
- 1088 Progress Avenue.

No new development is proposed to the above noted listed sites as a result of this application.

Detailed information regarding the proposal, including background information and material may be obtained by contacting Joey Au Yeung, Assistant Planner at 416-392-3010, or by e-mail at Joey.Auyeung@toronto.ca.

PURPOSE OF PUBLIC MEETING

Scarborough Community Council will receive input and review the proposal and any other material placed before it, in order to make recommendations on the application. These recommendations will then be forwarded to Toronto City Council for its consideration.

You can follow the meeting at www.youtube.com/TorontoCityCouncilLive.

MAKE YOUR VIEWS KNOWN

Special Assistance: City Staff can arrange for special assistance with some advance notice. If you need special assistance, please call TTY 416-338-0889 or e-mail scc@toronto.ca.

FURTHER INFORMATION

Given that the amendments listed in this Notice regulate the use of lands at several locations within the geographic boundaries of the City of Toronto, a key map has not been provided with this notice.

If you wish to be notified of the decision of the City of Toronto on the proposed and/or passing or refusal of the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment, you must make a written request to the City Clerk attention: Nancy Martin, Administrator, Scarborough Community Council, at the address, fax number or e-mail set out above.

If a specified person or public body as defined under the Planning Act or the registered owner of any land to which by-law would apply would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the City of Toronto to the Ontario Land Tribunal but the specified person or public body as defined under the Planning Act or the registered owner of any land to which the by-law would apply does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of Toronto before the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment is passed, the specified person or public body as defined under the Planning Act or the registered owner of any land to which the by-law would apply is not entitled to appeal the by-law.

People writing or making presentations at the public meeting: The City of Toronto Act, 2006, the Planning Act, and the City of Toronto Municipal Code authorize the City of Toronto to collect any personal information in your communication or presentation to City Council or its committees.

The City collects this information to enable it to make informed decisions on the relevant issue(s). If you are submitting letters, faxes, e-mails, presentations, or other communications to the City, you should be aware that your name and the fact that you communicated with the City will become part of the public record and will appear on the City's website. The City will also make your communication and any personal information in it - such as your postal address, telephone number or e-mail address - available to the public, unless you expressly request the City to remove it.

Many Committee, Board and Advisory Body meetings are broadcast live over the internet for the public to view. If you speak at the meeting you will appear in the video broadcast. Video broadcasts are archived and continue to be publicly available. Direct any questions about this collection to City Clerk's Office at the telephone number or email address set out above.

An online version of this Notice is available at <https://www.toronto.ca/city-government/public-notices-bylaws/>.

Compliance with Provincial laws respecting Notice may result in you receiving duplicate notices.

Dated at the City of Toronto on August 20, 2025.

John D. Elvidge
City Clerk
