

NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETING

To be held by the Toronto and East York Community Council
(Under the Planning Act)

Request to Amend the Official Plan Application Number 24 247135 STE 10 OZ

Location of Application: 707 Dundas Street West and 327 Bathurst Street
Applicant: City of Toronto

Date: April 3, 2025
Time: 10:00 a.m., or as soon as possible thereafter
Place: Committee Room 1, Toronto City Hall and by Video Conference

PROPOSAL

This City-initiated application to amend the Official Plan proposes to re-designate the lands from Parks to Mixed Use Areas for the property at 707 Dundas Street West and 327 Bathurst Street where the Scadding Court Community Centre and Sanderson Public library are located. The re-designation would facilitate the construction of a new community centre and library, as well as introduce residential uses (including affordable housing) on the site.

Detailed information regarding the proposal, including background information and a copy of the proposed Official Plan Amendment may be obtained by contacting Aileen Keng, Community Planner at 416-395-7044, or by e-mail at Aileen.Keng@toronto.ca.

PURPOSE OF PUBLIC MEETING

The Toronto and East York Community Council will receive input and review the proposal and any other material placed before it, in order to make recommendations on the application. These recommendations will then be forwarded to Toronto City Council for its consideration.

FURTHER INFORMATION

If you wish to be notified of the decision of the City of Toronto on the passing or refusal of the proposed Official Plan Amendment, you must make a written request to the City Clerk attention: Cathrine Regan, Administrator, at the address, fax number or e-mail set out above.

If a specified person or public body as defined under the Planning Act or the registered owner of any land to which the plan would apply would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the City of Toronto to the Ontario Land Tribunal but the specified person or public body as defined under the Planning Act or the registered owner of any land to which the plan would apply does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of Toronto before the proposed Official Plan Amendment is adopted, the specified person or public body as defined under the Planning Act or the registered owner of any land to which the plan would apply is not entitled to appeal the decision to adopt the proposed Official Plan Amendment.

People writing or making presentations at the public meeting: The City of Toronto Act, 2006, the Planning Act, and the City of Toronto Municipal Code authorize the City of Toronto to collect any personal information in your communication or presentation to City Council or its committees.

The City collects this information to enable it to make informed decisions on the relevant issue(s). If you are submitting letters, faxes, e-mails, presentations, or other communications to the City, you should be aware that your name and the fact that you communicated with the City will become part of the public record and will appear on the City's website. The City will also make your communication and any personal information in it - such as your postal address, telephone number or e-mail address - available to the public, unless you expressly request the City to remove it.

Many Committee, Board and Advisory Body meetings are broadcast live over the internet for the public to view. If you speak at the meeting you will appear in the video broadcast. Video broadcasts are archived and continue to be publicly available. Direct any questions about this collection to City Clerk's Office at the telephone number or email address set out above.

An online version of this Notice is available at <https://www.toronto.ca/city-government/public-notices-bylaws/>.

Compliance with Provincial laws respecting Notice may result in you receiving duplicate notices.

Dated at the City of Toronto on March 10, 2025.

John D. Elvidge
City Clerk
