NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETING

To be held by Toronto and East York Community Council
(Under the Planning Act)

Request to Amend the Zoning By-law Application Number 25 108495 STE 09 OZ

Location of Application: 72 Perth Avenue
Applicant: Sajecki Planning

Date: May 1, 2025
Time: 10:00 a.m., or as soon as possible thereafter
Place: Committee Room 1, Toronto City Hall and by Video Conference

PROPOSAL

The application to amend the Zoning By-law proposes an 18-storey residential building (plus an amenity and mechanical penthouse level) with 19,485 square metres of gross floor area and 262 residential units for the property at 72 Perth Avenue. The application also proposes a 134-square metre on-site parkland dedication that will contribute to the widening of the West Toronto Rail Path and 13 affordable rental housing units.

Detailed information regarding the proposal, including background information and material may be obtained by contacting Victoria Fusz, Senior Planner, Community Planning at 416-395-7172, or by e-mail at Victoria.Fusz@toronto.ca.

Further information can be found at www.toronto.ca/72PerthAve.

PURPOSE OF PUBLIC MEETING

The Toronto and East York Community Council will receive input and review the proposal and any other material placed before it, in order to make recommendations on the application. These recommendations will then be forwarded to Toronto City Council for its consideration.

FURTHER INFORMATION

If you wish to be notified of the decision of the City of Toronto on the passing or refusal of the proposed Zoning By-law, you must make a written request to the City Clerk attention: Cathrine Regan, Administrator, at the address, fax number or e-mail set out above.

Zoning By-law Amendment Appeal: If a specified person or public body as defined under the Planning Act or the registered owner of any land to which by-law would apply would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the City of Toronto to the Ontario Land Tribunal but the specified person or public body as defined under the Planning Act or the registered owner of any land to which the by-law would apply does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of Toronto before the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment is passed, the specified person or public body as defined under the Planning Act or the registered owner of any land to which the by-law would apply is not entitled to appeal the by-law.

People writing or making presentations at the public meeting: The City of Toronto Act, 2006, the Planning Act, and the City of Toronto Municipal Code authorize the City of Toronto to collect any personal information in your communication or presentation to City Council or its committees.

The City collects this information to enable it to make informed decisions on the relevant issue(s). If you are submitting letters, faxes, e-mails, presentations, or other communications to the City, you should be aware that your name and the fact that you communicated with the City will become part of the public record and will appear on the City's website. The City will also make your communication and any personal information in it - such as your postal address, telephone number or e-mail address - available to the public, unless you expressly request the City to remove it.

Many Committee, Board and Advisory Body meetings are broadcast live over the internet for the public to view. If you speak at the meeting you will appear in the video broadcast. Video broadcasts are archived and continue to be publicly available. Direct any questions about this collection to City Clerk's Office at the telephone number or email address set out above.

An online version of this Notice is available at <https://www.toronto.ca/city-government/public-notices-bylaws/>.

Compliance with Provincial laws respecting Notice may result in you receiving duplicate notices.

Dated at the City of Toronto on April 2, 2025.
