

OLIVIA CHOW
MAYOR

December 9, 2025

Dear TTC Commissioners,

I was pleased to join TTC Chair Jamaal Myers at the launch of the Finch West LRT, and I know together we will celebrate the opening of the Eglinton Crosstown LRT next year.

Opening a new, long-awaited transit line is a big moment for our city. But we know the LRTs need to move faster. Together with Chair Myers, we developed these recommendations to get our new LRTs and our existing streetcars providing the fast, frequent and reliable service that Torontonians expect. I will also have a motion at City Council that will provide complementary direction for City staff.

I look forward to working with the TTC, the Board and Council to speed up our LRTs and streetcars, and get Torontonians moving.

Sincerely,
