COMMENTS

Your Toronto Zoo is committed to providing a healthy, safe and inclusive environment for all staff. Our Occupational Health & Safety Programs, policies and safety initiatives are designed to prevent workplace injuries/ illness and promote staff well-being and support healthy and safe work practices including psychological health and safety in the workplace.

The Health & Safety Services Branch continues to evaluate and evolve our Zoo's health and safety programs and management systems so that we not only continue to comply with, but where reasonable, exceed all applicable occupational health and safety legislation and standards related to a zoological environment.

We are committed to continuously improving on and working towards a positive health and safety culture.
