Comments:

I'm writing to share my comments regarding Council Item 2026.CC40.1. I find the proposal to use public funds to cover Councillor Moise's legal fees for the Integrity Commissioner's investigation to be completely unacceptable.

Taxpayers should not be held financially responsible for the legal defense of an elected official who has violated our city's Code of Conduct. Using public money in this way shows a total lack of accountability and mismanages the resources meant for our community.

The findings of this investigation have broken the trust that residents place in their representatives. Because of this breach of ethics, Councillor Moise should resign immediately. Toronto deserves leaders who hold themselves to a higher standard.

Please ensure these comments are included in the official record for the Council meeting.
