Communities & Outreach

TO Live is welcoming everyone to engage with the arts by curating a range of creative learning projects and participatory events to bring together and inspire communities from all backgrounds. Activities range from workshops, opportunities for students, teachers, and adults, to special events, talks, and discussions including those that amplify other areas of TO Live's programming.

Making Space Program

Rehearsal Space

TO Live opens its doors to the artistic community by offering accessible and affordable rehearsal spaces.

Technical Residencies

Provides access to TO Live's equipment, professionals, and venues to help refine the technical elements of their performances.

Developmental Residencies

Provides space, time, and resources for artists to explore new ideas, experiment with concepts, and develop their performances.

explorations

explorations has been conceived in recognition of the importance for artists to have the creative space and time, to explore the possibilities of their own practice and artistic ambitions. In 2026, we invited applicants from across all disciplines and seven artists were selected by a jury to each receive $7,000 to research their idea.

Communities & Outreach

Programs and partners include:

Black Artists' Network in Dialogue (BAND)
Community Classes
Dancing with Parkinson's
Doors Open Toronto
Nuit Blanche Toronto
Masterclasses
North York Arts
Paprika Theatre Festival – Indigenous Arts Program
