RECOMMENDATIONS

The Chief Executive Officer recommends that:

1. FINANCIAL IMPACT

A one-year agreement with Festival Management Committee secures the Toronto Caribbean Carnival 2026 at Exhibition Place and will provide a financial return to the Board of $30,000 in food and beverage revenue plus net show services and net parking revenue.

DECISION HISTORY

At its meeting of April 23, 2010, the Board approved a “Not-for-Profit Booking Guideline”, which allows for a discount of $1,000 against the cost of Board Services for Community Events held at Exhibition Place.

At its meeting of September 25, 2025, the Board concurred with the action taken by the Chair and the Chief Executive Officer on July 11, 2025 in approving the one-year agreement with the Festival Management Committee (FMC) for the Grand Parade 2025, on the terms and conditions of the standard license agreement for Exhibition Place.

COMMENTS

The Toronto Caribbean Carnival is a major cultural event that has been held at Exhibition Place since the mid-1990s. The Grand Parade is scheduled to be held at Exhibition Place on Saturday, August 1, 2026.

This Caribbean tradition of parading through the street was founded in celebration of freedom and emancipation from slavery. It is appropriately celebrated on what has been recognized by the Canadian government as Emancipation Day weekend.

In 2006, the FMC was established as the main body and event organizer for the Toronto Caribbean Carnival. Given the importance of the carnival to the community and the fact that the parade is free to view for citizens of Toronto, the Board and staff have been working with the FMC for several years to provide financial support by sharing some of the revenues generated from this event.

In 2016, a modified Parade Route was developed to accommodate Hotel X construction on Parking Lot 851 and in Parking Lot 856 due to the addition of the Raptors Training Facility, now the OVO Athletic Centre.

In 2017, the FMC proposed a new direction for the parade, reversing the direction from 2016 to have the parade commence from the western end of Lake Shore Boulevard at British Columbia Road.

The Toronto Caribbean Carnival was cancelled in 2020 and 2021 due to the COVID-19 Pandemic.

The Toronto Caribbean Carnival (TCC) or Toronto Carnival is a vibrant and dynamic celebration of Caribbean culture, heritage, and artistry. Now in its 59th year, the Carnival is one of the largest cultural festivals in North America, attracting millions of participants and spectators from around the world and contributing over half a billion dollars to the Toronto economy.

Similar to last year, the FMC is working with Hotel X to determine the best way to accommodate both the parade and hotel guests. In 2026 the route has been modified to align with the available space for the grand parade. The new route has been approved by the Police and Emergency Services.
