City Council Decision

City Council on December 16 and 17, 2025, referred Administrative Inquiry IA35.1 from Councillor Josh Matlow, Ward 12, St. Paul's, regarding FIFA Traffic Management and Answer IA35.1a from the City Manager to the Executive Committee for consideration.

Summary

Councillor Josh Matlow, Ward 12, St. Paul's, has submitted the following Administrative Inquiry:

I am submitting this administrative inquiry under Municipal Code section 27-7.11 to seek information regarding the impact that the FIFA World Cup can be expected to have on the City's traffic management and the City's preparedness to continue to meet resident's needs.

Question 1: What is the anticipated impact on Toronto's drivers, pedestrian and public transit riders of the increased volume of visitors from June – July 2026 related to the FIFA World Cup, including for matches, community events, and Fan Zone activations?

Question 2: What roads will need to be closed in relation to Fan Zones and the Outer Security Perimeter around Toronto Stadium, how long will the roads be closed, and what is the anticipated impact on Toronto's drivers, pedestrians and public transit riders?

Question 3: When is the FIFA-mandated transport mobility plan being completed and brought forward to Council?
