NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETING
To be held by the Etobicoke York Community Council
(Under the Planning Act)

Request to Amend the Zoning By-law Application Number 23 101352 WET 02 OZ

Location of Application: 250 Wincott Drive and 4620 Eglinton Avenue West
Applicant: Montrin Richview GP Inc.

Date: November 26, 2025
Time: 9:30 a.m. or as soon as possible thereafter
Place: Council Chamber, Etobicoke Civic Centre, 399 The West Mall and by Video Conference

PROPOSAL

The application to amend the Zoning By-law proposes to permit two new mixed-use buildings, 24- and 29-storeys in height, with a total of 690 residential units, 513 square metres of non-residential GFA, 470 square metres of community agency space, and 387 vehicular parking spaces. The Zoning By-law amendment includes a new public park, a privately-owned publicly accessible space (POPS), and a private street that provides access to the site from Wincott Drive and Eglinton Avenue West. The site is currently developed with an existing commercial plaza, and the site has permissions for an additional mixed-use building located at the southeast corner. The existing commercial plaza and the additional mixed-use building are not included in this application.

Detailed information regarding the proposal, including background information and material may be obtained by contacting Lisa Hosale, Senior Planner, at 416-396-5793, or by e-mail at Lisa.Hosale@toronto.ca.

FURTHER INFORMATION

If you wish to be notified of the decision of the City of Toronto on the passing or refusal of the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment, you must make a written request to the City Clerk attention: Nancy Martins, Administrator, Etobicoke York Community Council, at the address, fax number or e-mail set out above.

Zoning By-law Amendment Appeal: If a specified person or public body as defined under the Planning Act or the registered owner of any land to which by-law would apply would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the City of Toronto to the Ontario Land Tribunal but the specified person or public body as defined under the Planning Act or the registered owner of any land to which the by-law would apply does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of Toronto before the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment is passed, the specified person or public body as defined under the Planning Act or the registered owner of any land to which the by-law would apply is not entitled to appeal the by-law.

People writing or making presentations at the public meeting: The City of Toronto Act, 2006, the Planning Act, and the City of Toronto Municipal Code authorize the City of Toronto to collect any personal information in your communication or presentation to City Council or its committees.

The City collects this information to enable it to make informed decisions on the relevant issue(s). If you are submitting letters, faxes, e-mails, presentations, or other communications to the City, you should be aware that your name and the fact that you communicated with the City will become part of the public record and will appear on the City's website. The City will also make your communication and any personal information in it - such as your postal address, telephone number or e-mail address - available to the public, unless you expressly request the City to remove it.

Many Committee, Board and Advisory Body meetings are broadcast live over the internet for the public to view. If you speak at the meeting you will appear in the video broadcast. Video broadcasts are archived and continue to be publicly available. Direct any questions about this collection to City Clerk's Office at the telephone number or email address set out above.

An online version of this Notice is available at <https://www.toronto.ca/city-government/public-notices-bylaws/>.

Compliance with Provincial laws respecting Notice may result in you receiving duplicate notices.

Dated at the City of Toronto on October 28, 2025.
