COMMENTS

Composition of the Toronto Hydro Board

The board has a total of 11 members including:

- the Mayor or the Mayor's designate appointed by City Council
- 2 members of Council
- 8 public members who are not elected officials or employees of the City of Toronto or any of its agencies or corporations, one of whom shall be the chair

There are currently three positions under consideration, including Chair

There are currently three positions under consideration, including the role of Chair, due to the following members terms coming to an end on June 27, 2026:

- Michael Eubanks,
- Ersilia Serafini, and
- Brian Topp, current Chair.

All members serve until successors are appointed.

Term of office

The term of office for public members of City corporations is two years, and until successors are appointed. In May 2015, Council adopted a two-year term unless otherwise stated for public members of City corporations. The candidates appointed through this process will serve a term of office beginning June 28, 2026 and ending June 27, 2028 and until successors are appointed.

Board members should meet certain Council-approved qualifications

Board members should collectively represent a range of expertise including:

- experience on a public utility commission or board of a major corporation or other commercial enterprise
- corporate finance
- corporate governance
- market development
- large system operation and management
- urban energy industries
- public policy issues and laws relating to Toronto Hydro and the electricity market
- environmental matters, labour relations, and occupational health and safety issues
- commercial sensitivity and acumen
- independence of judgement and personal integrity
- at least three directors with financial management expertise

Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for appointment to the board, public members must meet the eligibility requirements in the City's Public Appointments Policy.

In addition, under the Business Corporations Act, persons are ineligible for appointment to the board if they are:

- A person who has been found under the Substitute Decisions Act, 1992 or under the Mental Health Act to be incapable of managing property or who has been found to be incapable by a court in Canada or elsewhere.
- A person who is not an individual.
- A person who has the status of bankrupt.

Board members receive remuneration

Members of the Toronto Hydro Board receive:

- The Chair receives an annual retainer of $75,000
- Board members receive an annual retainer of $12,500, plus $1,000 per meeting up to a maximum of $30,000

We have consulted with Toronto Hydro

In preparation for this process, Public Appointments staff consulted with Toronto Hydro staff to discuss current board needs, emerging trends, and the appointments process. It was suggested that candidates with public sector or non-profit governance experience, board experience, or experience in both the financial and energy industry would be an asset.

Outreach was conducted for this vacancy

Targeted outreach to attract skilled and diverse candidates included promotions on LinkedIn and Twitter, contacting professional associations and communication via the Public Appointments e-updates list.

Next steps - Interviews

Once the Corporations Nominating Panel has selected candidates to interview, the City Clerk's Office will contact the candidates to schedule them for 20 minute interviews. Six interviews at 20 minutes each plus deliberations will take approximately 3 hours to complete.
