Recommended Candidate Biography for the North Toronto Memorial Arena Board

Pak Hum

A lifelong resident of Toronto and a local homeowner, he has a strong connection to his community and a genuine interest in its continued growth and well-being. As a father of two sons, he is deeply invested in creating positive opportunities for youth through education, sports, and community involvement. Professionally, he brings a well-rounded background that spans both financial services and the skilled trades. His experience in financial services has equipped him with strong capabilities in budgeting, financial oversight, and strategic planning, while his trades background provides practical, hands-on insight into operations, maintenance, and infrastructure. This combination allows him to approach challenges with both analytical discipline and real-world practicality.
