by Toronto City Council

Moved by: Councillor Mike Colle

Seconded by: Councillor Vincent Crisanti

The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Sean Michael Dodds.

Sean was a deeply loved husband, father, and friend. He was the beloved husband of Luisa Dodds, and a proud, devoted father to Arthur Dodds (Kaitlynn) and Patrick Dodds (Lindsay). He was a man who led with strength, generosity, and an unwavering love for his family. Standing at 6 feet 10, he was truly a larger-than-life presence in every sense.

Sean took immense pride in being a husband and father, always showing up with loyalty, guidance, and a steady presence that made those around him feel safe and supported. His love ran deep, and it was felt not only by his immediate family but by everyone lucky enough to know him. Sean was also a beloved member of the St. Mike's alumni community, where he played basketball and was remembered fondly for his kindness and compassion.

Sean will be fondly remembered by his siblings: Marian Prochter, Deirdre Dodds, Frances McDougall (Gary), Alice Hodgson (Phil), Anthony Dodds, Cleo Papa, Stan Paulozza (Helen), and Antoinette Khan (Ameer).

Sean also leaves behind many cherished nieces and nephews, including Jean-Paul Teskey, Joseph Papa, Travis Hoover, Natasha Dirani (Shadi), Perry Paulozza, Joseph McDougall (Kyung), Emma McDougall (Justin), Jordan Khan (Francesca), Anthony Dirani, and Liliana Dirani.

Sean also held a special place in his heart for his honorary sons, Anthony Mason, Jahmeek Murray Taylor, Natey Adjei, and Christopher Lindo, as well as his honorary nieces and nephews, Tristan, Everly, and Hudson.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincere sympathy to Sean's family
