by Toronto City Council

Moved by: Councillor Michael Thompson

Seconded by: Mayor Olivia Chow

The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Hyacinth Clarine Sulph, who passed away peacefully on April 26, 2026.

Born on January 21, 1951, in Warsop, Trelawny, Jamaica, Hyacinth lived a life marked by warmth, grace, kindness, and quiet strength. She will be remembered as a devoted and loving wife whose marriage to her husband, Dr. Alvin Curling, was built on deep commitment, respect, and companionship.

Hyacinth shared a close and meaningful bond with her siblings, including her three sisters, Phyllis, Cora, and Khama, and her brother, Phillip. She will also be deeply missed by her stepdaughters, Deone and Nicole; her stepson, Tyrone; her adopted daughter, Cecile; her grandchildren, Bria, Maya, Cole, Solagne, Nicholas, and Quinn; as well as her many nieces, nephews, extended family members, and friends.

Those who knew Hyacinth will remember her for the kindness she offered so freely, the dignity with which she carried herself, and the special way she made others feel welcomed, valued, and appreciated. Her presence was a blessing to her family and community, and her memory will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincere sympathy to Dr. Alvin Curling, the Sulph and Curling families, and the extended community on Hyacinth's passing.
