Moved by: Councillor Michael Thompson

Seconded by: Mayor Olivia Chow

The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Marion Angela Magloire, who passed away peacefully on May 5, 2026, at the age of 74.

Marion was born on July 4, 1951, in Trinidad and Tobago to Edna Nicholson and Leroy Williams. The second youngest of three siblings, she attended Eastern Girls' High School and Holy Name Convent before emigrating to Canada in August 1969 with her sister, Gemma Nicholson. She later pursued post-secondary studies at York University, where she was remembered as a bright and dedicated student.

In 1988, Marion married Garth Magloire, and together they built a loving family with their two sons, Jamaal and Karlon. Marion was a devoted wife, loving mother, proud grandmother, and the heart of her family. Often described as "the glue that binds," she brought loved ones together for holidays, celebrations, and difficult moments alike, always ensuring that family remained close and connected.

Marion had a deep love for travel, entertaining, music, food, laughter, and friendship. She found joy in life's simple pleasures, including Soca music, Bingo, trips to the casino, good food, good wine, and sharing jokes and funny videos with those she loved. Her humour, warmth, and joyful spirit brought happiness to everyone around her.

Becoming a grandmother to Jalen and Essence brought Marion immense pride and joy. She treasured every moment with them and embraced her role wholeheartedly, surrounding them with unconditional love. That same warmth extended to her nieces, nephews, and all children, who always held a special place in her heart.

Marion was also deeply connected to her community through her involvement with the Jamaal Magloire Foundation, Toronto Revellers, and numerous charitable initiatives she supported over the years. Through her generosity, kindness, and commitment to others, she helped strengthen the bonds of family, friendship, culture, and community.

Marion will be remembered for her strength, kindness, humour, and unwavering love for her family and friends. She leaves behind a beautiful legacy of love, laughter, togetherness, and care that will continue to live on in all who knew and loved her.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincere sympathy to the Magloire family and extended community.
