The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Alexander (Alex) Hryshko on June 6, 2026, at the age of 46, after a courageous battle with cancer.

Alex was a dedicated member of the Toronto Public Service. He worked in the City Clerk's Office, where he combined his love of photography and history by digitizing artifacts and photographs as part of the City of Toronto Archives team. Alex's legacy will live on in digitized content at the Toronto Archives. He will be greatly missed by his colleagues and friends.

Alex will be remembered as a devoted husband and father.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincere sympathy to Alexander's family and all those whose lives he touched.
