

Expression of Condolence for Marc Pinizzotto
by Toronto City Council

Moved by: Mayor Olivia Chow

Seconded by: Councillor Shelley Carroll

The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Toronto Police Service Constable Marc Pinizzotto, who was tragically killed in the line of duty on June 11, 2026, at the age of 43.

Marc Pinizzotto was a respected 18-year veteran of the Toronto Police Service and a dedicated member of the Emergency Task Force. Throughout his career, he served the residents of Toronto with professionalism, courage and an unwavering commitment to public safety. Constable Pinizzotto was a highly regarded officer whose service and leadership earned the respect of his colleagues and the communities he helped protect.

Constable Pinizzotto was devoted to serving others and exemplified the Toronto Police Service's motto, "To Serve and Protect." Beyond his distinguished policing career, he was a loving husband, father, son, brother, mentor and friend whose loss is being deeply felt by all who knew him.

We offer our deepest condolences to Constable Pinizzotto's family and loved ones, the entire Toronto Police Service and the broader policing community. His death is a profound loss that is being mourned across Toronto and beyond.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincere sympathy to Constable Pinizzotto's wife, children, parents, family members, friends, colleagues and all those whose lives he touched through his service.
