

ATTACHMENT 1

Recommended Candidates and Biographies for the Moss Park Arena Board

Karin Fritzlar

Karin Fritzlar is the Director of Marketing and Communications for Gore Mutual Insurance where she leads internal and external communications, change management and marketing for the organization. A lifelong volunteer, she has served on several boards for the local chapters of the International Association of Business Communicators, before joining the Moss Park Arena Board in 2021. Appointed chair in 2025, Karin is excited for the upcoming renovation of the arena, so it can continue to provide inclusive access to ice sport in the local area. Karin spent her childhood and teen years in arenas as a recreational figure skater, teacher and judge. She enjoys spending her free time exploring Toronto and Ontario with her husband and step-daughter.

Stephen Graham

Stephen is a Chartered Professional Accountant with expertise in financial systems, public sector governance, and community infrastructure. His curiosity about how services and budgets interconnect has shaped a career, blending analysis with impact. From University of Manitoba's Asper School of Business (BComm Honours), Stephen gained global perspective through consulting in Canada and Middle East. Since moving to Toronto in 2001, he has played hockey at Moss Park Arena, continuing Sundays in co-ed league—giving insight into operations and user needs. At City of Toronto, Stephen oversaw budgets for city-run arenas in Parks and Recreation, developing cost recovery and user fee models. In Corporate Accounting Services, he oversaw Agencies, Boards and Commissions (ABCs) and capital projects with $3B annual expenditures. Through his corporation, Stephen advises businesses, non-profits, and governments as fractional Chief Financial Officer, creating planning, reporting, and costing frameworks for sustainable decisions. Leslieville resident with 9-year-old son and dog, Stephen coaches soccer, plays hockey/tennis, and trails. His arena involvement and expertise position him to contribute governance, financial oversight, cost recovery, and equity to Moss Park Arena Board.