(4) Menus shall be posted in a conspicuous location.

(5) Special diets and nutritional supplements shall be supplied to a resident upon the direction of a physician.

(6) Meals shall be saved for residents if advance notice is given.

F. Medical.

(1) Arrangements shall be made for a physician (house physician) to be on call for emergencies when the resident's physician is not available, but no resident shall be required to accept medical attention from the house physician.

(2) Where a physician determines that emergency nursing care or home care is needed by a resident, the resident shall be allowed to receive that care.

(3) All prescription drugs shall be kept in one (1) or more locked drug cabinets, or with the resident, and a list of the contents of all drug cabinets, updated daily, shall be maintained and shall be available for inspection by the Medical Officer of Health.

(4) Prescription drugs shall be available only to the person to whom they are prescribed, as directed by a physician.

(5) Subcutaneous and intramuscular injections shall be given by a registered nurse or a physician or may be self-administered by a resident on a physician's order.
(6) The owner shall maintain a locked file containing a personal record for each resident.

(7) The record shall contain the following:

(a) The resident's name.

(b) The date of commencement of residency in the personal-care rooming house.

(c) The name, address and telephone number of the attending personal physician, if any.

(d) The Ontario Health Insurance Plan (OHIP) number and Drug Plan number. [Amended 2019-06-19 by By-law 901-2019]

(e) The name, address and telephone number of the next of kin or other person to notify in case of an emergency.

(8) The record may contain a statement of the resident's relevant medical history obtained from the resident's physician with the resident's consent.

(9) A resident shall not be denied access to support services, including access to alternative housing options which maintain or enhance the health and welfare of the resident.

§ 285-5. Offences.

Any person who contravenes any provision of this Article is guilty of an offence and, on conviction, is liable to a fine of not more than the maximum fine under section 61 of the Provincial Offences Act. ²

§ 285-12.1. Inspection fee; collection. [Added 1997-10-06 by By-law No. 1997-0524]

A. An owner shall pay a fee to the City of fifty dollars ($50.) per hour or part of an hour and, where an inspection is required after regular business hours, a fee of not less than one hundred fifty dollars ($150.) for each inspector for any inspection which is undertaken by or on behalf of the City to determine compliance with any condition imposed on the rooming house licence.

B. The compensation payable to the City under this section may be added to the tax roll for the rooming house property and collected in like manner as municipal taxes.

§ 285-13. Inspection; notice of application.

A. Upon receipt of an application for a rooming house licence and the required licence fee, the Executive Director shall cause an inspection to be made of the rooming house or request any authority having jurisdiction to inspect the rooming house to determine whether it complies with applicable law. [Added 1997-10-06 by By-law No. 1997-0524]

B. Notice of an application for a rooming house licence shall be given to the tenants of the rooming house by posting the notice in a conspicuous place on or in the rooming house, except that if the rooming house does not have an existing licence or if there is a change in ownership, notice of the application shall be given to the tenants in the manner set out in § 285-15B.

C. Notice of an application for a rooming house licence shall be given to the Ward Councillor.

D. The notices given under Subsections B and C shall indicate that if the tenant or Ward Councillor has any comments, the comments should be provided to the Licensing Assistant within the time period specified in the notice.

A. The Licensing Assistant, on behalf of the Licensing Commissioner, shall issue a licence for a rooming house, where:

(1) The application form is complete.

(2) Any required fee has been paid.

(3) The inspections under § 285-13 have been completed and indicate that the rooming house complies with:

(b) Chapter 629, Property Standards. [Amended 2019-06-19 by By-law 901-2019]
(c) Any applicable zoning by-law.

(e) The Health Protection and Promotion Act.\(^9\)

(f) Article I if applicable.

(4) The inspections do not indicate non-compliance with any City by-law.

(5) The last licence issued for the rooming house was not subject to any condition, and in this provision "licence" includes a temporary licence.

(6) There are no outstanding complaints with respect to the rooming house or objections to the application in the Licensing Commissioner's file on the rooming house or, in the case of a new rooming house, the Licensing Commissioner's file on the application.

(7) No objections have been received by the Licensing Assistant with respect to the application.

B. Where a licence is issued under Subsection A, the Licensing Assistant shall advise the Ward Councillor.

C. Where a licence is not issued under Subsection A, the Licensing Commissioner shall review the application and where the Licensing Commissioner is satisfied that the rooming house complies with applicable law and that there are no grounds for refusal under § 285-15C(2), (3) or (4) or § 285-16, the Licensing Commissioner shall issue a licence for the rooming house. \[Amended 1997-10-06 by By-law No. 1997-0524\]

D. Where the Licensing Commissioner has been advised by an authority having jurisdiction that the rooming house does not comply with applicable law or where there are grounds for refusal under § 285-15C(2), (3) or (4) or § 285-16, the Licensing Commissioner shall hold a hearing. \[Amended 1997-10-06 by By-law No. 1997-0524\]

A. Prior to the hearing, the Licensing Commissioner shall give notice of the hearing to the owner, and the notice shall include:

   (1) A statement setting out those matters in respect of which the Licensing Commissioner is advised that the rooming house in the application does not

comply with applicable law and any facts upon which the Licensing Commissioner believes that grounds for refusal exist under Subsection C(2), (3) or (4) or § 285-16. [Amended 1997-10-06 by By-law No. 1997-0524]

(2) A statement setting out the time and place at which the Licensing Commissioner will hold a hearing to consider the application.

(3) A statement that the hearing will be a public hearing and that the authority for the hearing is § 285-14D.

(4) A statement that if the owner does not attend the hearing, the Licensing Commissioner may proceed with the hearing in his or her absence, and the applicant will not be entitled to any further notice in the proceeding.

B. Prior notice of the hearing in a form satisfactory to the Licensing Commissioner shall be given to:

(1) The tenants of the rooming house by posting the notice in a conspicuous place on or in the rooming house and by:

(a) Placing the notice in the mail-boxes of the tenants;

(b) Placing the notice under the door of each dwelling room or dwelling unit; or

(c) Any manner considered reasonable by the Licensing Commissioner, where it is not possible to give notice in the manner set out in Subsection B(1)(a) or (b);

(2) The Ward Councillor; and

(3) Any person who has made a written request for notice of the hearing to the Licensing Commissioner or Licensing Assistant, if the request for the notice includes an address for service.

C. At the hearing, the Licensing Commissioner shall consider the application, and if the Licensing Commissioner:

(1) Is satisfied that the rooming house complies with applicable law and that Subsection C(2), (3) and (4) and § 285-16 do not apply, he or she shall issue a licence subject to any conditions as the circumstances require. [Amended 1997-10-06 by By-law No. 1997-0524]

(2) Is satisfied that a City inspector has been refused entry to the rooming house or, after diligent effort, the inspector has been unable to inspect the rooming rooming house to ascertain if it complies with applicable law, he or she shall refuse to issue the licence.

(3) Is not satisfied that the rooming house complies with applicable law, he or she shall refuse to issue a licence. [Amended 1997-10-06 by By-law No. 1997-0524]

(4) Is satisfied that the past conduct of the owner or, where the owner is a corporation, of its officers or directors, affords reasonable grounds for belief that the rooming house will not be operated in accordance with applicable law, with proper management and with honesty and integrity, he or she shall refuse to issue the licence but may issue a temporary licence subject to any conditions as the circumstances require.

(5) Is satisfied that the owner is in contravention of any condition attached to a licence, he or she shall refuse to issue any licence. [Amended 1997-10-06 by By-law No. 1997-0524]

D. [Added 1997-10-06 by By-law No. 1997-0524] For the purposes of Subsection C:

(1) In considering the issue of proper management, the Licensing Commissioner shall have regard, among other matters, to the following:

(a) Maintenance of the rooming house in a safe, quiet, clean and sanitary condition;

(b) Any conduct on the part of the owner that would endanger the health and safety of any tenants or members of the public; and

(c) Not permitting drug and narcotic or prostitution related criminal activities or any other criminal activities by tenants or visitors in the rooming house or on the lot on which the rooming house is located.

(2) In considering the issue of honesty and integrity, the Licensing Commissioner shall have regard, among other matters, to the following:

(a) Any convictions, orders, rulings or judgements made by any authority against the owner related to the operation of the rooming house; and

(b) Any false or misleading information provided by the owner in any application or hearing under this chapter.

In deciding whether to issue a licence or a temporary licence under § 285-15C(4), the Licensing Commissioner shall take into account any record of previous contravention or conviction against the owner for offences under applicable law and any record and disposition of complaints against the owner by:

A. Federal, provincial or municipal authorities respecting the enforcement of legislation under their jurisdiction governing dwellings owned by the owner.

B. Occupants of dwellings owned by the owner.

C. Residents in the vicinity of dwellings owned by the owner.

D. Any other person who, in the opinion of the Licensing Commissioner, has knowledge of the manner in which the owner operated dwellings or permitted them to be operated.

§ 285-17. Temporary licence.

A. Where a temporary licence is issued under § 285-15C(4) or (5), the temporary licence shall set out:

(1) The period of time for which it is valid, which period shall not exceed one (1) year;

(2) The provisions of any by-law, Act or regulation which the rooming house contravenes;

(3) The nature of the previous contravention, conviction or complaint against the owner; and

(4) A statement that the owner is required to bring the rooming house into compliance with the by-law, Act or regulation or is required to remedy the situation which led to the previous contravention, conviction or complaint within the period of time set out in Subsection A(1).

B. Where, in the opinion of the Licensing Commissioner, a rooming house for which a temporary licence has been issued is brought into compliance with applicable law, the Licensing Commissioner may reinstate or issue a rooming house licence.

§ 285-17.1. Inspection to ensure compliance with licence conditions. [Added 1997-10-06 by By-law No. 1997-0524]

Where a licence is issued with conditions attached to it, the Executive Director shall cause an inspection to be made of the rooming house or request that any authority having jurisdiction inspect the rooming house to ensure compliance with any condition.
§ 285-18. Suspension or revocation of licence.

A. The Licensing Commissioner may suspend or revoke any licence issued under this Article after holding a hearing and §§ 285-15, 285-16 and 285-17 apply with necessary modifications.

B. At the hearing, the Licensing Commissioner may also suspend or revoke any licence if, in his or her opinion, the information provided in the application for the licence is incorrect.

C. At the hearing, where the Licensing Commissioner is satisfied that the owner is in contravention of any licence condition, he or she shall revoke the licence. [Added 1997-10-06 by By-law No. 1997-0524]

A. Transfer prohibited; change of ownership.

(1) A rooming house licence shall not be transferred.

(2) A rooming house licence expires when the ownership of a rooming house changes, and a change of ownership includes:

(a) The conveyance of the ownership on the title to the land or premises.

(b) Any arrangement by which the beneficial ownership is transferred.

(c) Where the ownership is held by a corporation, the transfer of the ownership of shares which results in a change in the control of the corporation.
