§ 702-8. Orders to comply.

- A. An officer who finds a contravention of this chapter may make one or more orders requiring discontinuance of the contravening activity or to do work to correct the contravention under section 384 or 385 of the City of Toronto Act, 2006.

- B.
 - (1) The order may be served personally on the person to whom it is directed, by regular mail, or by registered mail to the last known address of that person, in which case it shall be deemed to have been given on the third day after it is mailed.

 - (2) If the address of a person is unknown or the City is unable to effect service on the person under subsection B (1), a placard stating the terms of the order and placed in a conspicuous place upon land on or near the retail business establishment shall be deemed to be sufficient notice to the person.

 - (3) If the delay necessary to serve an order under subsection B (1) would result in circumstances that endanger the health or safety of any person or similarly serious consequences, the order may be served by a placard stating the terms of the order and placed in a conspicuous place upon land on or near the retail business establishment.

§ 702-9. Remedial action.

- A. If a person fails to comply with an order to do work to correct a contravention of this chapter, the Executive Director or persons acting on their instructions, may enter the premises of a retail business establishment at any reasonable time for the purposes of doing the things described in the order at the person's expense.
