Toronto, ON M5H 2N2

Dear Councillor DeBaeremaeker:

Attached please find a cheque in the amount of $1598.85 which represents the difference between the $2000.00 allocated for printing and movie nights and the actual expense portion of $401.15 to Audio Cine Films Inc.

Trusting this is satisfactory.

Sincerely,

Glenn De Baeremaeker's Film Fest in the Park

Free movies every Friday and some Saturdays in July!
See other side of this flyer for a movie near you

What to bring with you to the movies:

- ♦ a blanket (or lawn chair) to sit on and another blanket for warmth
- ♦ an umbrella (In case of a brief rainfall, the show will go on)
- ♦ a ball or frisbee to play with before the show starts
- ♦ your own soft drinks, snacks and other goodies
- ♦ bug repellent to keep the pests from biting
- ♦ warm clothes and jackets for cool nights
- ♦ a small bag to clean up your garbage.

Thanks to our generous sponsor: CUPE Local 416

Help Glenn bring movie magic to Scarborough!

The secret to Glenn's amazing events is an army of volunteers who do everything from serving popcorn to putting up movie screens to cleaning up afterwards. Whether you're a student who needs to earn your volunteer hours, a senior, or somewhere in-between, there are lots of ways to help. Please call Glenn's office, if you'd like to join his team.

Glenn De Baeremaeker's Film Fest in the Park

Join Glenn for movies under the stars!
All movies start after sunset. (Roughly 9 p.m.)

Friday, July 5 – Densgrove Park – MouseHunt

Two bumbling brothers stand to make millions from the old house they've inherited – if they can just get rid of the tiny tenant who's living in the walls. What starts as a simple task turns into a battle royal between man and mouse. Actor Nathan Lane will make you laugh out loud but it's the mouse who'll win your heart.

Densgrove Park is at 16 Densgrove Rd., south-east of Markham Rd. and Painted Post.

Friday, July 12 – Lee Centre Park – Monster in Paris

When Emile and his friend Raoul poke around in a scientist's lab, things go terribly wrong and a monster is set loose in the city of lights. But is he really a monster – or a gentle but gigantic creature that needs their protection? With humour, haunting music, and beautiful images of Paris, this animated feature is sure to please young and old.

Lee Centre Park is at 112 Corporate Dr., just west of Bellamy.

Saturday, July 13 – Knob Hill Park – Matilda

Matilda Wormwood's family isn't very nice...and things only get worse when she meets the evil principal of Crunchem Elementary School. That's why Matilda needs to work on her special powers – powers that are going to start turning things upside down at Crunchem! Based on the well-loved children's book by Roald Dahl.

Knob Hill Park is behind Knob Hill Public School, 25 Seminole Ave., east of Brimley.

Friday, July 19 – Cedargrove Park – Kit Kittredge: An American Girl

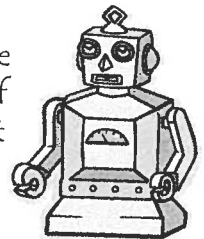

Like many people during the Great Depression, Kit Kittredge's family is facing tough times – but that's not going to stop this spunky young heroine from having adventures, chasing her dream of becoming a newspaper reporter, and solving a robbery. Oscar-nominated Abigail Breslin will tug at your heartstrings and make you cheer.

Cedargrove Park is at 100 Farmbrook Rd., north-east of Bellamy and Nelson.

Friday, July 26 – North Bendale – Wall-E

Humans have trashed the planet and left a lonely robot named Wall-E behind to clean up the mess. Then a sleek little robot named Eve arrives, taking Wall-E on an adventure that's out of this world! Can two small machines convince the human race to return to Earth and give the planet another chance? Charming, thought-provoking and the best animated feature of 2009.

North Bendale Park is at 29 Aveline Cres., south-east of Ellesmere and McCowan.

Saturday, July 27 – St. Andrews Park – Ratatouille

Remi the Rat dreams of becoming a chef but it's not till he teams up with a young worker in a fancy French restaurant that things really get cooking. Of course, despite his skills in the kitchen, Remi has to keep a low profile because who wants a rat around the food? Loveable characters, an exciting story and Oscar-winning animation make this movie a tasty treat!

St. Andrews Park is next to St. Andrews Public School, 60 Brimorton Dr., east of Brimley.
