The Toronto Local Appeal Body has set aside (insert #) hours for this mediation hearing.

All parties, participants and interested persons should attend at the start of the mediation at the time and date indicated above, irrespective of the time allotted. Mediation dates are firm – adjournments will not be granted except in the most serious circumstances, and only in accordance with the Toronto Local Appeal Body's Rules on Motions for Adjournments.

Mediation will ordinarily be held orally and as between the parties, unless the Toronto Local Appeal Body determines otherwise; however, the Toronto Local Appeal Body by Notice or by its Rules may provide that mediation may be by way of an electronic hearing.

Mediation is to be conducted in confidence. Any information or documents provided or exchanged during a mediation and any discussions or exchanges relating to the resolution of issues or offers to settle are and shall remain confidential and shall not be disclosed or entered as evidence in the same or any other proceeding except on the consent of the affected parties. Any notes of a mediation made by a member shall remain confidential and shall not be released to any person or admitted into evidence in any proceeding. Disclosure of the settlement terms and conditions that are proposed for approval by the Toronto Local Appeal Body may be disclosed. This does not affect the obligations of parties to make disclosure as otherwise required by the Rules.

If you do not attend the mediation, the Toronto Local Appeal Body may proceed with mediation and make a decision in your absence, and may authorize changes to the proposal, matter, or relief requested.
