Sony Centre For The Performing Arts

Present and produce artistic programming of the highest quality from around the world to serve and educate audiences from Toronto's diverse cultures. In connection therewith, negotiate complex business programming deals to maximize the financial return to the Centre. Provide a unique performance and meeting venue, complete with state-of-the-art technology and first-class catering services. Operate, maintain and promote (with minimal overhead) the importance of Canada's largest theatre (3,191 seats), a world-class heritage designated performance venue designed by Toronto's most famous architect, Peter Dickinson. Strengthen Toronto's Youth by partnering and collaborating with educational institutions to promote the artistic achievements of our students. Bolster the economy of the St. Lawrence Neighbourhood and attract tourism.

St. Lawrence Centre for the Arts

Serve as home to some of the best not-for-profit theatre and music companies that reside in and produce work in the City of Toronto. Act as the cultural hub for the City and its residents by maintaining a clean, modern and service-oriented theatrical and entertainment facility. As a focus for Toronto-based performing arts and artists, the Centre will continually attract diverse, high quality, cultural, artistic and public events.

Toronto Centre for the Arts

The Toronto Centre for the Arts will become the most versatile performing arts centre in the GTA and a necessary and important part of the cultural lives of the City's diverse population. The Centre will be anchor to the arts community through its role as incubator and partner in promoting the arts. A full range of performing arts will be represented within the programming the Centre has to offer. The Centre will take a leading role in attracting audiences that reflect the full ethnic and social diversity of Toronto's citizens. The Centre embraces its role as an important cultural economic generator and will place strategic emphasis on maximizing the financial benefits to the greater community. The Centre will build important strategic links with the local business and arts community and will seek educational and programming partners that will strengthen the operations of the Centre and its reach into the community. Through its existing agreement with the Canadian Songwriters Hall of Fame the Centre will create the physical Canadian Songwriters Hall of Fame in its existing lobby space providing a unique destination for Canadians of all ages to explore the incredible achievements of Canadian songwriters.
