

TORONTO Executive Management

City Manager's Office

The City Manager is the most senior official in the City's administrative structure and is accountable to City Council for the policies and programs delivered by members of the Toronto Public Service. The City Manager is assisted by three Deputy City Managers and the Chief Financial Officer/Treasurer. In addition, the City Manager's Office is comprised of four divisions: Executive Management, People, Equity & Human Rights, Strategic & Corporate Policy and Strategic Communications and two Offices: Chief Resilience Office and Chief Transformation Office.

The Executive Management division supports the day to day operation of the City Manager's office and the daily work of the City Manager. This division also focuses on financial and administrative oversight, management of emerging corporate issues, agenda coordination, municipal performance measurement, benchmarking and best practices initiatives.
