

TORONTO Equity, Diversity & Human Rights

City Manager's Office

The City Manager is the most senior official in the City's administrative structure and is accountable to City Council for the policies and programs delivered by members of the Toronto Public Service. The City Manager is assisted by three Deputy City Managers, one of whom is also the Chief Financial Officer for the City. In addition to the City Manager and the three deputies, the City Manager's Office is comprised of six divisions: Executive Management, Equity, Diversity & Human Rights, Human Resources, Internal Audit, Strategic & Corporate Policy and Strategic Communications.

Equity, Diversity, & Human Rights Division ensures that City services, programs and policies are responsive to the needs of Toronto's diverse communities. The division provides expert advice, promotes and manages human rights and implements key corporate initiatives to foster equity, diversity and inclusion in all City practices.
