

TORONTO Community Consultation Meeting

The City of Toronto holds public consultations as one way to engage residents in the life of their city. We invite you to get involved.

Yonge-Eglinton Secondary Plan – Consultation Meeting

The City is holding a Community Consultation meeting on proposed building height limits included in the City staff recommended Yonge-Eglinton Secondary Plan within the vicinity of the Yonge Street and Eglinton Avenue intersection, as well as the potential for increasing employment opportunities around transit stations. Details are as follows:

Date: Thursday, June 21, 2018
Time: 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.
Place: The Roehampton Hotel, Eglinton Room
808 Mount Pleasant Rd, Toronto, ON

Following direction from Planning and Growth Management Committee on June 7, 2018 on the Midtown in Focus planning study, this community consultation meeting will be focused on obtaining feedback from the public on:

- Lowering permitted building heights for new buildings in the area generally bounded by Broadway Avenue to the north, Soudan Avenue to the south, Duplex Avenue to the west and Mount Pleasant Road to the east; and
- Increasing employment opportunities within the area, including along Yonge Street, Eglinton Avenue and other key streets and intersections served by existing and future transit stations.

Following the community consultation meeting, the feedback received and any potential amendments to the Yonge-Eglinton Secondary Plan will be presented at the continuation of the Special Public Meeting being held by the Planning and Growth Management Committee on July 5, 2018 at 11:30 a.m., or as soon as possible thereafter in Committee Room 1, 2nd Floor, City Hall, 100 Queen Street West.

The Yonge-Eglinton Secondary Plan is part of the proposed Official Plan Amendment No. 405.
