

Results of active Blacklegged tick surveillance*. Toronto, 2013 to 2018 data, combined.

Data as of July 9, 2018.
 CDSU [iPHIS].
 Spatial data: City of Toronto
 [Enterprise Geospatial Repository – 2006 Census Region Boundary Files].
 Prepared by: Communicable Disease Surveillance Unit, Toronto Public Health.

Locations where blacklegged ticks have been found

- Algonquin Island
- Anewen Greenbelt
- Cedar Ridge Park
- Colonel Danforth Park
- Doris McCarthy Trail
- Highland Creek
- Humberwood Park
- Morningside Park
- Pine Point Park
- Rouge Park
- Rowntree Mills Park
- Sylvan Park
- Toronto Hunt Club

*Active tick surveillance is when public health staff collect ticks from their natural habitat through tick dragging.

Copyright © City of Toronto 2018.
 All rights reserved.