Dear Councillor Kelly:

Re: Travel-related benefits provided by the Dubai Executive Council for Your Trip to Dubai, United Arab Emirates, March 4 – March 11, 2017

Thank you for providing me with a Travel Declaration Form for the above-referenced trip to disclose sponsored travel provided to you and your spouse. I confirm that the travel related benefits you have disclosed are in compliance with section (f) of Article IV (Gifts and Benefits) of the Code of Conduct for Members of Council as travel was sponsored by a government, and you attended in your official capacity as a Councillor.

I form this view based on my review of:

- 1) the Travel Declaration Form dated March 28, 2018 (amended July 25, 2018);
- 2) A December 14, 2016 letter from Senator Art Eggleton and Dr. Patricia L. McCarney inviting you to attend the WCCD Global Cities Summit 2017 in Dubai;
- 3) Travel itinerary indicating the cost of your air transportation and email outlining the cost of your accommodations; and,
- 4) Summit agenda

This letter, the Travel Declaration Form, and attached supporting material will be posted on the Integrity Commissioner's website, toronto.ca/integrity, in accordance with the Code of Conduct for Members of Council.

If you have any questions about the disclosure of gifts and benefits please do not hesitate to contact this Office.

Yours truly,

City of Toronto

Dear Councillor Kelly,

Re: WCCD Global Cities Summit 2017 – Cities on the Global Stage – Data as the Universal Language

From March 7-9th, the cities of the WCCD will be gathering in Dubai for the 2017 Global Cities Summit and we would like to cordially invite you to attend. The theme of the Summit is Cities on the Global Stage - Data as the Universal Language.

Toronto's commitment to harnessing the power of city data to create a more sustainable, resilient, prosperous, smarter, and more inclusive Toronto marks your city as one of the leading members of the WCCD. As a Foundation City of the WCCD, Toronto has been an essential contributor to our global efforts. Toronto's commitment to data-driven decision making – alongside its WCCD ISO 37120 Certification - have also been essential in globally broadcasting our message regarding the importance of globally standardized, internationally comparable city data.

Hosted in partnership with the Executive Council of Dubai, this event will be 2017's preeminent global gathering on data-driven cities committed to a more sustainable and inclusive prosperity, and will welcome prominent guests and speakers from around the world.

The Global Cities Summit will be an opportunity for cities and their partners to learn, share, and exchange experiences across a wide spectrum of big ideas and innovative solutions for cities.

We look forward to your response and very much hope that we will be able to welcome you to Dubai.

Yours sincerely,

Subject: RE: Dubai trip last year in March

Dear Norm,

I hope all is well.

As you may be aware, hotel accommodation for VIP delegates at the WCCD Global Cities Summit was a part of the Government of Dubai's sponsorship of the event. As a result the cost of accommodation was not disclosed to us but I understand that the approximate cost of accommodation was between US$500 and US$600 per night – also you can check further from the Armani Hotel website <https://reservations.armanihoteldubai.com>.

I hope that is helpful, and my apologies that I could not provide you with more specific information.

Best wishes!

Patricia
