Toronto is a Cycling City

Cycling is one of the fastest growing transportation modes in Toronto. The City is working to make travel by bike safer and more inviting. Making it easier for people to choose cycling helps ease congestion on the streets and transit, creates a cleaner environment, and promotes a healthier public.

The City supports cycling by building and maintaining bike lanes and multi-use trails, installing bike parking facilities, distributing bike network maps, and carrying out other campaigns and projects to promote cycling confidence and safe road use behaviour.

The City also supports building beautiful streets. StreetARToronto is a suite of initiatives designed to mitigate graffiti vandalism, enhance the public realm, and encourage active transportation. StreetARToronto implements mural projects across the City.
